

Example 2.5 Determine the reduction factor U to be applied in computing the effective net area for a $W14 \times 82$ section connected by plates at its two flanges, as shown below. There are three bolts along each connection line in the direction of loading.

