

6.033 CI-M Grading Rubric, Spring 2011

Name:

Recitation Section:

Writing Instructor:

Email:

Total Score*:

(* If you receive less than 80 points you must meet with your writing instructor. Please contact your Writing Program lecturer at his or her email address above. You may also contact the Writing Program coordinators for this course: Mary Caulfield (mcaulf@mit.edu) or Don Unger (donunger@mit.edu) for assistance.

Organization and Content	Points (Out of 25)
CLARITY: Is what you are recommending/proposing/arguing/designing clear? Comments:
LOGIC: Are the logical underpinnings credible, complete, well organized? Can the reader easily distinguish between your original ideas and those that come from readings, collaboration, or other outside sources? Comments:
APPROPRIATENESS: Does the work conform to: 1. The terms of the assignment? 2. Appropriate disciplinary conventions? 3. Standard English used in business and technical environments? Comments:
PRESENTATION: Does the work adhere to specifications for graphics and format? Is it carefully proofread? Comments:	