6.S097 Final Project Rubric

Write-up

- Does the write-up explain the problem trying to be solved and why it is an important problem to be solved?
  ○ Pass / Fail
- Does the write-up explain the basics of the machine learning algorithm used to solve the mentioned problem?
  ○ Pass / Fail
- Does the write-up explain how specifically the machine learning algorithm was tuned/implemented?
  ○ Pass / Fail

Comments:___________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

Code

- Does the code have a machine learning component?
  ○ Pass / Fail
- Is the code in working condition?
  ○ Pass / Fail

Comments:___________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

Visualization

- Is there a visualization component?
  ○ Pass / Fail

Comments:___________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

OVERALL:   PASS / FAIL