At 2 am one morning a person runs 250 m along the infinite corridor at MIT from Mass Ave to the end of Building 8, turns right at the end of the corridor and runs 178 m to the end of Building 2, and then turns right and runs 30 m down the hall. What is the direction and magnitude of the straight line between start and finish?