Welcome to the Breakfast of Champions for the FSILG Strategic Plan
Today’s Agenda

- Eat breakfast
- Welcome & Introductions – Marlena Love
- Champion’s Roles & Responsibilities – Steve Stuntz
- Role of the Theme Committees – Dave Hutchings
- IFC, Panhel, and LGC Participation
- Executive & Advisory Committees – Steve Baker
- Theme Team Huddles – all (pick your team)
- Executive Committee Huddle at 9:20
- End by 9:30!
Why a Strategic Plan?

• Parallels DSL strategic planning effort
• Revisits and updates previous strategic efforts
• Sets a new vision for next 5 years and beyond
• Refocuses community on common goals
• Outlines a systematic approach to facility issues
Role of the Champions

Role - the project manager for this initiative
- Define what success means – a document, a program in place
- Create team if needed
- Do not expect you to do it but to get it done
- Define the pieces needed - these are a list of tasks that when done will mean that the task is successfully accomplished

Define the tasks - We have used the Smart goals approach
- Define Specific tasks
- Ensure that tasks are Measureable
- Ensure that tasks are Achievable
- Ensure that tasks are Relevant
- Set the Time frame for accomplishing each task
Champions’ Responsibilities

Responsibility
Complete responsibility for detail design and implementation of this piece of the Strategic Plan.

Not just the product but its implementation.

“At MIT if the process has not been done, it will just be another report”.
Role of the Theme

Steering Committees

- Technical experts / advisers for specific initiatives – put champions in touch with resources to accomplish their tasks
- Coordinate implementation plans and resources to execute tasks laid out by champions
- Identify synergies between initiatives to ensure overall progress of the theme
- Advisory group to champions and volunteers – sounding board for ideas
IFC Strategic Task Force

- IFC Oversight Committee
- Action Committees
  - Alumni Relations
  - Community Relations
  - Fraternal Values
  - Institute Relations
  - Leadership
  - Member Programming
  - Recruitment
Panhel Strategic Plan Thoughts

• The Strategic Plan was received with positive feedback and acceptance by Panhellenic Community

• Sorority Presidents decided the three themes that are most important to Panhellenic Community
  • Theme 1 - Membership Development
  • Theme 2 - Partnership with Institute
  • Theme 5 - Alumni Relations
Panhel is tackling the Plan

- The Panhellenic Association is committing 14 members to the Strategic Plan.
  - On the Strategic Plan Executive Committee: Christine Lai
  - Theme 1 - Stephanie Holden, Amelia Brooks, & Julia Ellermeier
  - Theme 2 - Hannah Barrett, Elizabeth Murphy, & Nathalie Huynh
  - Theme 3 - Casey Wessel & Stephanie Chen
  - Theme 4 - Kira Kopacz & Yasmin Inam
  - Theme 5 - Jennifer Plotkin, Kali Xu, & Michelle Lee

- Purpose: provide younger members the opportunity to get involved and allow for checks and balances
The LGC’s Involvement

• Passed a resolution on May 9 expressing support for the plan
• Provided input to keep the plan inclusive for the LGCs
• LGC Secretary serves on Executive Committee
Role of the Executive Committee

• Composed of AILG Vice Chair, IFC and Panhel VPs, LGC Secretary, and Theme Steering Committee Facilitators

• Responsible for strategic oversight of all plan activities

• Coordinates with 4 governing councils and MIT

• Advocates for and is the public voice for the plan

• Seeks funding for plan initiatives
Advisory Committee

- Composed of DSL and DUE representatives, Corporation member, AILG Ombuds, faculty member
- Acts as a Visiting Committee; provides 50,000 ft view
- Meets ~3 times per year with Executive Committee
Theme Steering Committee Huddles

Gather into most appropriate Theme Steering Committee.

Discuss amongst yourselves:

- David Hutching’s role description
- Purpose and definition and likely timeline of Initiatives and Activities
- How can we help? What resources are needed.
- Who else might help? How do we recruit them?
- When should we meet in future?
THANK YOU!

Executive Committee meets at 9:20