

*Steve Immerman HM,
Senior Associate Dean & Co-chair of the Task Force on the Future of FSILGs*

Where are we?

- Fundamental shift has occurred
- Support infrastructure has been added
- Risk has been reduced
- Stability has been enhanced
- Better data has been developed

Progress has been achieved through the combined efforts of

- Staff
- Students
- Alumni
- Senior Officers

What is ahead?

- We are not yet where we want to be.
- How do we enhance the “value added” aspects of the FSILGs?
- What work is yet to be done?

We are not yet where we want to be.

- Data
- Recruitment
- Fundraising
- Outreach & Communication

How do we enhance the “value added” aspects of the FSILGs?

- Physical upgrades
- Academic support
- Alumni networking
- Mentoring & advising

What work is yet to be done?

- More intentional integration with MIT's educational mission
- Service
- Intentional definition of roles & responsibilities
- Preparation for staff & Alumni volunteer transitions

Potential future questions/issues

- Class size
- Marginal contraction of fraternities
- Sorority expansion potential
- Reallocation of annexes
- Creation of space on campus

Summary

- Significant progress achieved
- More to do
- It takes all of us
