

FSILG Shared Vision Retreat

Monday, February 2, 2009

MIT Endicott House

FSILG, AILG, IFC, Panhel, LGC

Mission of the FSILG Office

- The Fraternity, Sorority, and Independent Living Group Office works diligently to complement the Institute Mission and to use national standards and metrics to inform practices. Its purpose is to promote a cohesive community that values strong leadership, civic and social responsibility, mutual respect, and the growth and development of organizations and their members; to be an advocate for fraternal principles and a proponent of the shared values that living-learning communities provide.

(Developed August 2004, Revised January 2009)

Structure and Roles

- The FSILG Office is part of MIT Residential Life in the Division of Student Life

Kaya Miller, Assistant Dean, RLP & FSILGs

Lauren Wojtkun, Assistant Director (Sororities and ILGs)

Marlena Martinez, Assistant Director (Fraternities)

Bob Ferrara, Director, FSILG Alumni Relations

Fran Miles, Program Assistant

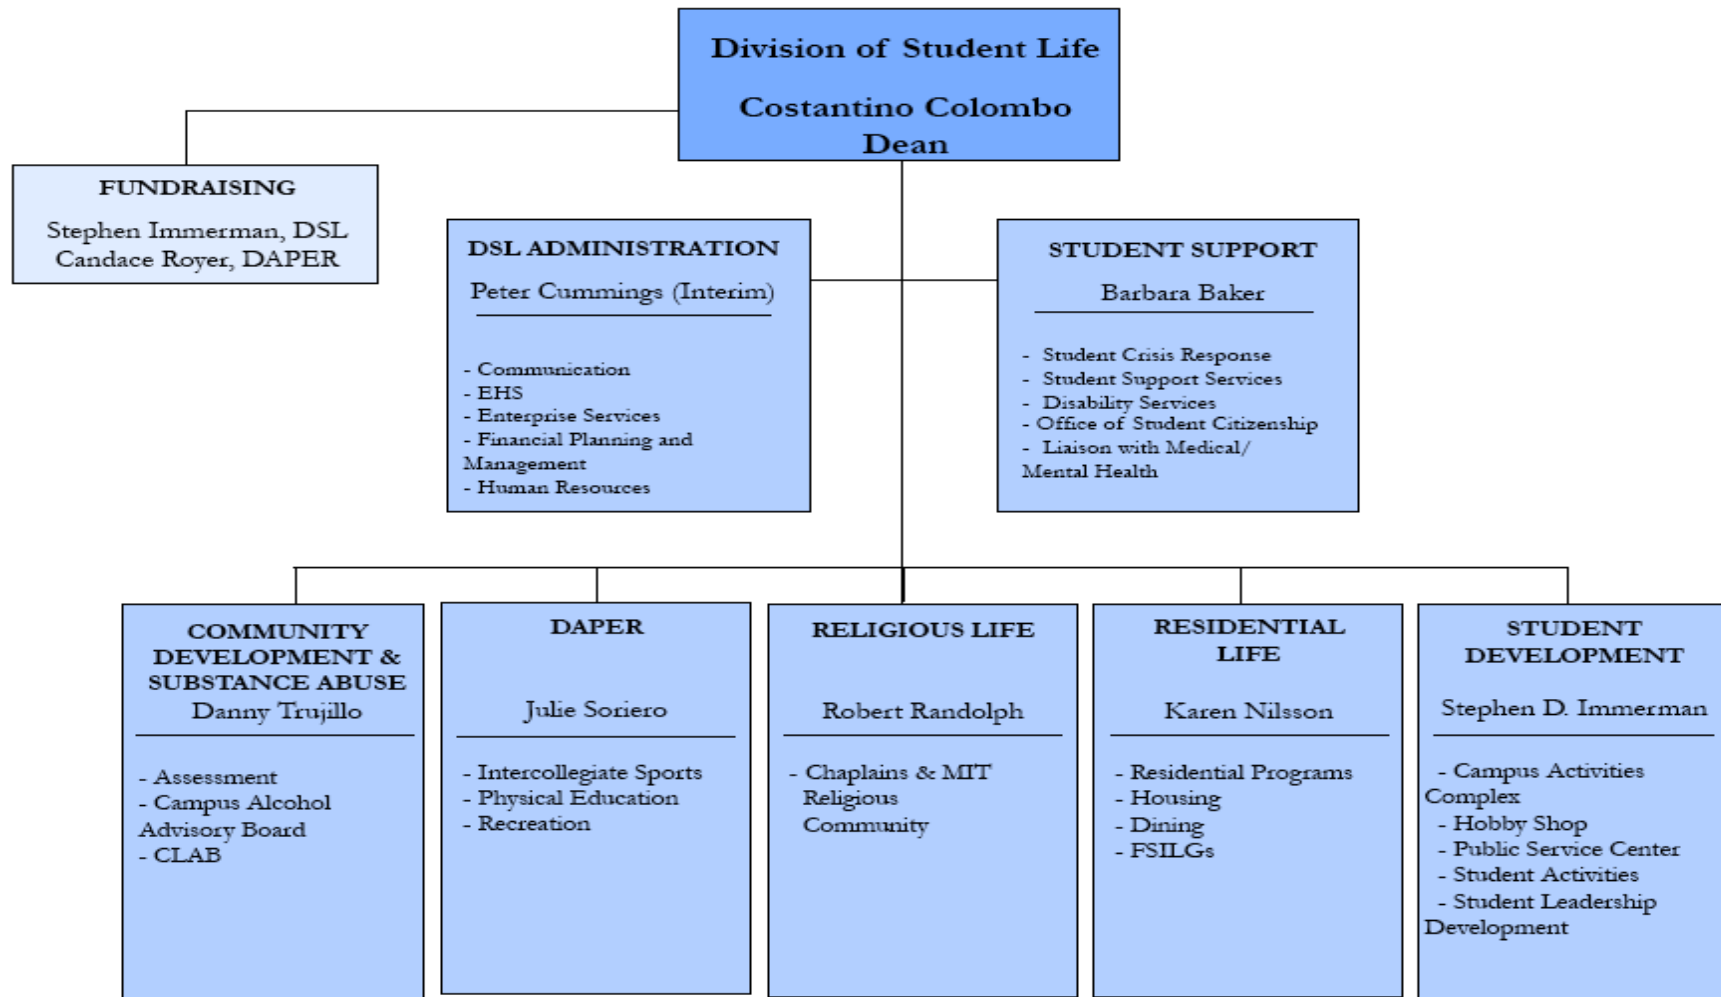

Donna Denoncourt, Associate Dean, Residential Life

Division of Student Life Organizational Chart

Division of Student Life

Effective September 18, 2008

Organizational Goals

- Serve as Educators
- Work towards Values Alignment
- Be Collaborative
- Serve as Advisors
- Be effective Administrators
- Conduct applicable Research
- Innovate
- Be Leaders

(Informed by AFA Core Competencies for Excellence)

Opportunities for Support and Collaboration

- Partner with undergraduates and alumni volunteers to communicate values based curriculum to larger community
- Increase opportunities for coaching and mentoring of undergrads as well as sharing these skills with alumni volunteers
- Strengthen current relationships with undergraduates and alumni volunteers into true partnerships, not us vs. them
- Better utilize AILG Accreditation information in working on FSILG organization development (use as benchmarking tool)
- Open lines of communication to allow undergrads and alumni to educate FSILG staff on needs of community and how we might address them
- Assessment, assessment, assessment