PANHEL GOALS

What	How
Serve the women in the MIT community	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Continue Women's Guide to MIT, etc..• Working to maximize Saferide's effectiveness
Help women develop leadership and other valuable career/life skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Develop sustainable programs that will foster personal development and growth
Unite sorority women as one Panhellenic body	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Help sisters understand Panhel's mission/values and role on campus• Make presentations on Panhel to new members early in the fall
Be more visible to MIT campus	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Build informative website• Develop informational program to give students 'truth' behind sororities (i.e. 'The Truth Behind Panhel')*
Become a more service oriented group	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Create/further develop service initiatives (ex. The Giving Tree, etc.)• Support/recognize philanthropies
Increase percentage of affiliated MIT women	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Increasing sorority awareness in fall• Providing info & personal experience/testimony to help accurately inform women in recruitment

•The 'Truth Behind Panhel' initiative/programming was developed a few years ago to increase awareness and understanding of MIT sororities and to correct inaccurate stereotypes

WHERE WE NEED SUPPORT

- Developing sustainable leadership programs/opportunities
 - Women's Professional Day: help advertising to and encouraging participation from MIT alumni & students
 - Current project to develop new leadership program for Panhellenic women at MIT
- Developing service initiatives
 - Current project on expanding service in Panhel, will need support to develop new ideas and providing available resources for Panhel & sorority women
- Getting connected with MIT sorority women alumni and resources
