

Special
Gratitude

We are inexpressibly grateful that God has brought us together, because in doing so, he has shown us not only how much he loves us, but also how much so many of you care about us.

Our families have showered us with love and support all our lives, and all the more these last few months.
Your examples give us great confidence as we begin our marriage.

We are eternally grateful to the Larsons, the Chappells, the wedding party, and a host of other friends who have helped us to recognize the blessings in front of us, and who have encouraged us as we have continued to fall in love.

Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work:
If one falls down,
his friend can help him up.
But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up!
Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm.
But how can one keep warm alone?
Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves.
A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.
