With the ISN/ARMY Labs Summer Intern Research Program *

The MIT Institute for Soldier Nanotechnologies is focused on basic research to dramatically improve the survivability of the soldier and first responders.

This summer program provides opportunities for MIT students to conduct science and engineering research at state-of-the art Army research facilities working under the direction of Army scientists.

As a summer intern, students:

• Gain valuable research experience
• Build new professional relationships
• Access world-class facilities
• Become part of a team that provides new, life-saving technologies.

If you are interested in learning more about this program the first step is to register at the website:
