SUTD-MIT Graduate Fellows Program Seeking MIT Graduate Students
Singapore University of Technology and Design (SUTD)
Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT)

The Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) in collaboration with the Singapore University of Technology and Design (SUTD) is seeking to appoint up to 3 graduate students for a special one-year, fully funded program that includes approximately six months at MIT and six months at the Singapore University of Technology and Design in Singapore. This unique program is focused on bringing top flight MIT graduate students to Singapore to participate in co-teaching and research activities.

We are especially seeking candidates interested in Math, Numerics, and Programming, as well as Engineering Physics.

While at MIT, Graduate Fellows will take a class or serve as a TA for a class which prepares them for the time during which they will serve as a teaching assistant in Singapore. The Fellow will also be expected to devote 50% of his or her time at both MIT and SUTD conducting research.

The application deadline for this intake of SUTD-MIT Graduate Fellows is May 15, 2012.
