Dear Graduate Students and Faculty,

We are pleased to announce this year’s call for nominations for the ODGE competitive fellowships. Updated information about these fellowships may be found at:

http://odge.mit.edu/finances/fellowships/odgefellowships/

Please note that students may not nominate themselves; all nominations must be submitted by departments. With the exception of the Ida M. Green Fellowship (see below) and the Endowed Fellowships of the Arab Republic of Egypt, the ODGE accepts one nomination per department for each award. The nomination cover sheet is attached to this message. Please note that fellowship stipend amounts for 2013–2014 may change once Institute RA/TA stipends have been set for FY2014.

As last year, this year’s Ida Green Fellowships will be awarded to the following categories of women students:

1) Incoming graduate students from external schools – 9 month full fellowships
2) Incoming graduate students who are currently MIT seniors – 9 month full fellowships
3) Incoming graduate students who are either external or internal candidates – 3 months of summer stipend support only

*Each department may nominate 1 student in each of these categories.

Nomination packages for each candidate should be sent to the Suzanne Maguire, Scott Tirrell (easterly@mit.edu) electronically as PDF files by 5pm on Friday, March 8, 2013. Hard copies will not be accepted.

Awards will be decided in early April, with the exception of the Hugh Hampton Young fellowship. Please note that the Egyptian fellowships are awarded upon the recommendation of the Egyptian Ministry of Finance, and this process may require additional time; we will be in regular contact with departments who have nominees for this fellowship throughout the selection process.

The Department, as nominator, will be notified first of all decisions; students will then receive confirmation of awards via email and written letter.

Please feel free to contact Scott Tirrell (stirrell@mit.edu, 324–7021) or (jlandry@mit.edu, 253–1958) with any questions.

Thank you,
Suzanne
