 VERIFY BUT SURVIVE

Brent Scowcroft, John Deutch and R. James Woolsey

In his novel "God Knows," Joseph Heller gives his hero, Zilfa, the gift of foresight and the ability to see events that have not yet occurred. If only one could see the future, would the need for arms control diminish? Could the world be made safe for democracy? In the end, the world is not made safe for democracy. It is made safe for arms control. But arms control is not the answer to the world's problems. It is merely a means to an end. The end is peace. The means is arms control. The end is peace. The means is arms control.
