

CITIES AGAINST NATIONALISM: URBANISM AS VISIONARY POLITICS

Spring Speaker Series*
Building 10-485
Mondays, 5:30-7:00 P.M.

February 9

“The City as a Legal Concept”

Gerald Frug, Harvard Law School

Commentary by Naomi Chazan, CIS Fellow
(and former member of the Knesset)

February 23

“Capital Cities: The Symbolism of the City-Nation Nexus”

Lawrence Vale, MIT

March 1

“Urban Governance and the Production of New State Spaces:
Western Europe, 1960-2000”

Neil Brenner, New York University

March 8

“Urban Utopias”

David Harvey, CUNY Graduate Center

March 15

“Contested Cities: Conflict and Co-existence
in Bosnia, Kashmir, and Northern Ireland”

Sumantra Bose, London School of Economics

March 29

“Uniting a Divided City: Post-apartheid Johannesburg”

Jo Beall, London School of Economics

April 5

“Iconic Architecture and Global Cities”

Leslie Sklair, London School of Economics

April 12

“Cities as Spaces for Democracy”

Richard Sennett, London School of Economics

April 26
“Identity and National Conflict”
Jonathan Glover, Kings College London

May 3
“The Global and the Local in Jerusalem”
Bruce Mazlish, MIT

May 10
“Cities as Agents of Peace”
Johan Galtung, University of Oslo

*This symposium is mounted in conjunction with the City Design and Development Monday evening speaker series hosted by the Department of Urban Studies and Planning (DUSP). This initiative forms part of the Jerusalem 2050: Vision for a Place of Peace project, jointly sponsored by the Center for International Studies (CIS) and DUSP. For more information on the speaker series or the Jerusalem Project please contact Prof. Diane Davis (dedavis@mit.edu) or visit the CIS website (<http://web.mit.edu/cis/>) and search the Cities in Conflict Working Group.

 To be confirmed.