- Research Article: a completed research article drawing on one or more CISR research projects that presents management frameworks, findings and recommendations.
- Research Summary: a summary of a research project with preliminary findings.
- Research Briefings: a collection of short executive summaries of key findings from research projects.
- Case Study: an in-depth description of a firm's approach to an IT management issue (intended for MBA and executive education).
- Technical Research Report: a traditional academically rigorous research paper with detailed methodology, analysis, findings and references.

CISR MISSION

CISR was founded in 1974 and has a strong track record of practice based research on the management of information technology. As we enter the twenty-first century, CISR's mission is to perform practical empirical research on how firms generate business value from IT. CISR disseminates this research via electronic research briefings, working papers, research workshops and executive education. Recent and current research topics include:

2003 Projects

- Business Models and IT Investments
- Governing IT for Different Performance Goals
- Assessing Architecture
- Infrastructure as Variable Cost
- Managing IT Related Risks

2004 Projects

- Assessing the Performance of Alternative Business Models
- Managing the Next Wave of Outsourcing
- Managing IT Architecture for Business Value
- Measuring IT-driven Risk
- Exploring the Role of the IT Unit in Leading IT-enabled Change

Since July 2000, CISR has been directed by Peter Weill, formerly of the Melbourne Business School. Drs. Jeanne Ross, George Westerman and Nils Fonstad are full time CISR researchers. CISR is co-located with MIT Sloan's Center for e-Business and Center for Coordination Science to facilitate collaboration between faculty and researchers.

CISR is funded in part by Research Patrons and Sponsors.

CISR gratefully acknowledges the support and contributions of its current Research Patrons and Sponsors...
