Society of Mind

We must have a lottery for those who wish to take the class for credit, since there are only so many final projects we can advise and grade. We will decide who can take the class for credit using a random process, biased by the answers on this survey.

- Even if you are not taking the class for credit, please fill out this survey.
- You can still attend the class as a listener or as a sit-in even if you are denied a credit-awarding spot.

1. Do you want to take the class for credit? (Y / N)

2. What is your name, your MIT username, your e-mail address?
