

Broadway and Main Street INTERSECTION REALIGNMENT

August through November 2009

Realignment of the intersection of Broadway and Main Street near Kendall Square will begin around August 11, 2009. Construction activities are expected to continue through November 2009.

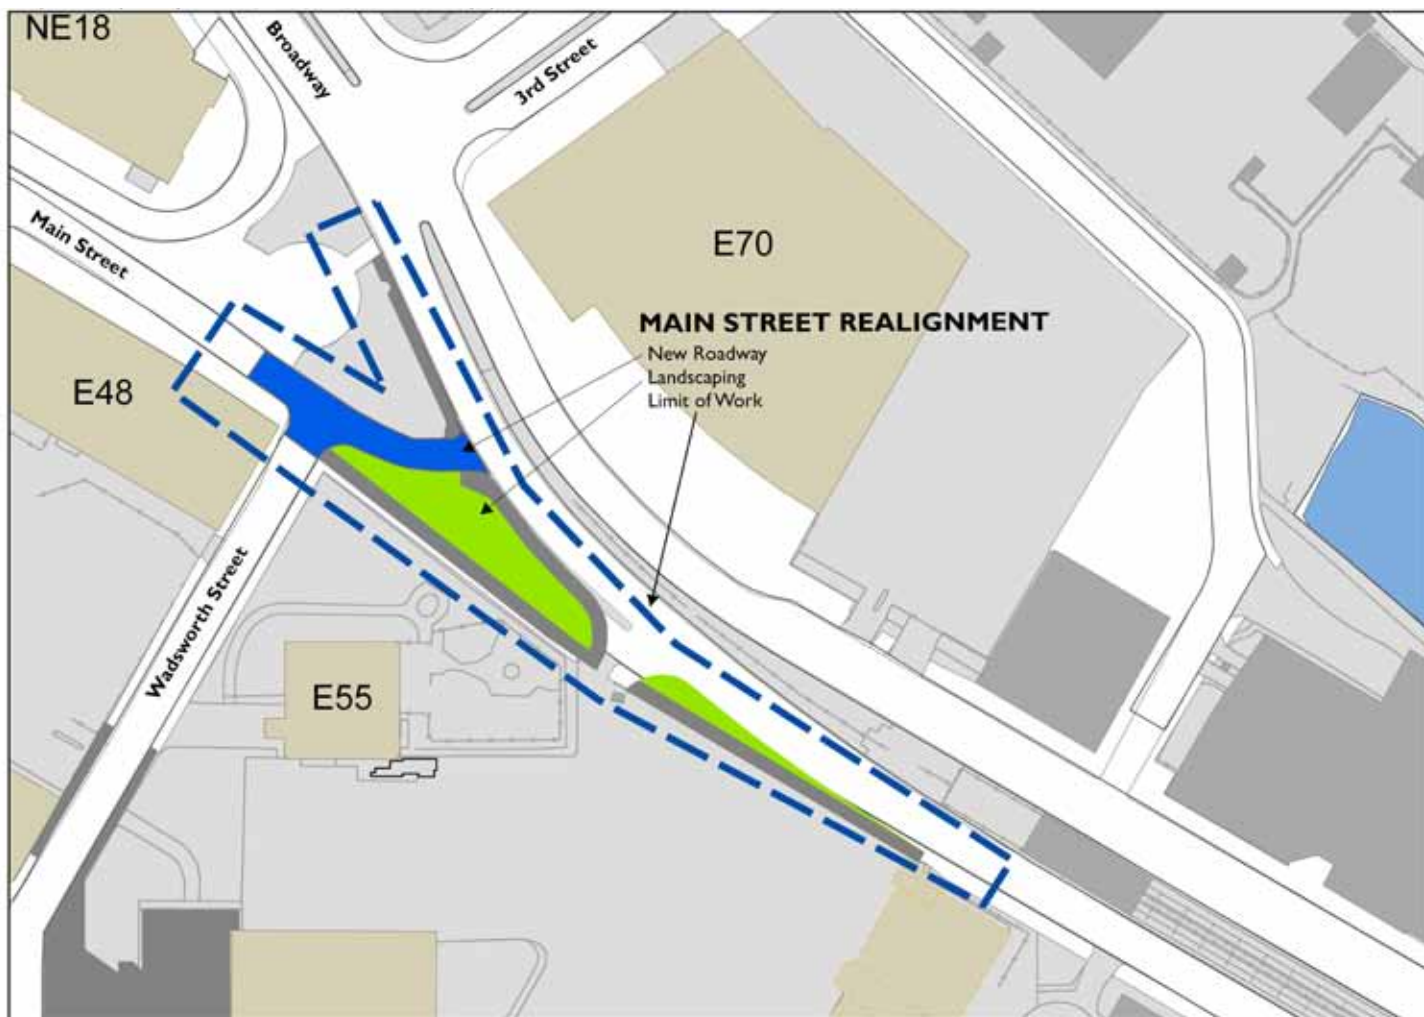

Construction will require lane width reductions on the eastbound lanes of both Main Street and Broadway. The realignment will improve roadway safety and add green space.

Additional information

For updates on this and other MIT projects, visit the Department of Facilities website: <http://web.mit.edu/facilities/construction/updates.shtml>

Questions?

Contact Jennifer Combs at 617-253-7671

Vehicular traffic heading eastbound on Broadway and Main Street will experience a reduction in the lane width.