Picture this....
You are on a warm sandy beach, in Southern Greece, with a cool wind blowing in from the water. Suddenly the person of your dreams approaches, and you begin to talk. The sun sinks lower on the horizon, and the question is asked, in a charming accent,

Do you want to go down to the Taverna? Do you know how to Syrtos?

“Of course,” you reply, “I learned at the MIT Folk Dance Club!

The Folk Dance club sponsors 3 nights of dancing. Contra dances take place the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of every month. International dances take place every Sunday. Israeli dances take place every Wednesday.

Come learn dances from all around the world at our Special Beginner’s Nights this September!

Lots of teaching, lots of dancing, no partner necessary, no experience needed!

Please see our website http://www.mit.edu/ fdc for further details or feel free to contact us at fdc-request@mit.edu