

	(RECENT) MIT GLOBAL CHANGE FORUMS	Joint Program on the Science and Policy of Global Change MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY	TEL: +1 617-253-7492 FAX: +1 617-253-9845 globalchange@mit.edu http://mit.edu/globalchange/
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

RECENT MIT GLOBAL CHANGE FORUMS with Session Titles

No.	FORUM THEME AND SESSION TITLES	DATE	Location	*Local Co-sponsor(s)
XXV	Opening up Climate Policy: Perspectives Beyond the Kyoto Protocol	2006: Oct 10-12	Vienna, Austria*	Austrian Institute of Economic Research (WIFO)
	SESSIONS: EU Emissions Trading Scheme – Review of Phase 1 & preparing for Phase 2; Will Climate Policy Benefit from the EU Policy Agenda?; The Effectiveness of Existing Policies and Measures in Greenhouse Gas Mitigation; The Adequacy of Current Forecasts of Climate Change; Evaluation of the Role of Adaptation in Climate Policy; Possible Dimensions of Future International Climate Negotiations
XXIV	Long-Term Goals for Climate Policy: Stabilization and Alternatives	2006: Jan 25-27	Coral Gables, Florida
	SESSIONS: Ongoing Stabilization Scenario Exercises; Stabilization Calculations: The Role of Threshold Processes, Issues in Definition & Expression of Results; Meta Benefit-Cost Analysis of Stabilization: Defining “Danger”; The Role of Stabilization Levels in Climate Policy; Status and Prospects for Post-2012 Negotiations
XIII	Research to Inform Climate Policy: Identifying the Critical Gaps	2005: Mar 22-24	Arlington, Virginia
	SESSIONS: Science: Improving Forecasts of Climate Change; Assessing the Impacts of Climate Change; Technology: Electric Generation; Transportation; Public and Private Inducement of Innovation and Technical Change; International Cooperation in Science, R&D, and Technology Transfer
XXII	Broadening Climate Discussions: The Linkage of Climate Change to Other Policy Areas	2004: Jun 9-11	Venice, Italy*	Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei AND Istituto Veneto di Scienze, Ltrr ed Arti
	SESSIONS: International Trade; Agriculture and Land Use; Air Pollution Control; Energy Security; Economic Development and International Aid; Urban Development and Coastal Protection; Prospects for an International Climate Regime
XXI	Climate Uncertainty, Long-Term Goals, and Current Mitigation Effort	2003: Oct 8-10	Cambridge, Massachusetts
	SESSIONS: Scenarios and Uncertainty Analysis of Future Emissions; Uncertainty in Climate Projections; Determination of Atmospheric Goals Under Uncertainty; Preparing Risk Results for Public Communication; Relating Long-Term Goals to Current Mitigation Policy; Next Steps in Climate Negotiations
XX	Instabilities in the Human-Climate System	2003: Jan 29-31	La Jolla, California*	U. of California Revelle Program on Climate Science & Policy
	SESSIONS: Ocean Processes: Current Theory and the Paleo Record; Polar Processes: Trends and Instabilities; Land Ecosystems: Rapid Change and Possible Irreversibilities; Ocean Biodiversity and Biological Processing; Sub-National vs. National Climate Policy Programs; The Future of a Fragmented Climate Regime
XIX	Managing Fragmented Climate Regimes	2002: Jun 12-14	Paris, France*	Centre Int’l de Reserche sur l’Environnement et le Développement
	SESSIONS: The Evolving State of the Climate Regime; Emerging Trading Systems; Trade Balance and Competitiveness Issues; The Role of Regional Climate Forecasts in Policy; Linkages between Climate and Air Pollution; Forces Pushing for Convergence * Forum held in collaboration with other organization.