

Office of the HASS Requirement

HASS Concentration Checklist for Students

Path to choosing and completing a Concentration

- Review Concentration choices and discuss Concentration(s) of interest with a Concentration Advisor\(s\).
- Once you have chosen a Concentration, go to Forms and Petitions (Online HASS Concentration Form) on WebSIS.
- Create a new HASS Concentration Form and select subjects to fulfill your Concentration in consultation with the Concentration Advisor.
- Save and Submit Concentration Proposal Form. Your Concentration Advisor will then be able to approve this proposal via their My Forms page.
- Complete the proposed subjects for your Concentration.
- Go to Forms and Petitions (Online HASS Concentration Form) on WebSIS.
- Fill out the Completion Form and submit to the Concentration Advisor. Contact the Concentration Advisor.
- The Concentration Advisor will be able to approve the completion via their My Forms page.

Path to modify your existing Concentration subject list

- Contact your Concentration Advisor to discuss your proposed changes.
- Go to Forms and Petitions (Online HASS Concentration Form) on WebSIS and make changes to your Concentration. Submit the form to your Concentration Advisor.

Path to a new Concentration

- Inform your previous Concentration Advisor that you are no longer concentrating in that field.
- Cancel your Concentration Form to start a new form.
- Follow the same procedures outlined in the first section of the document.

Please direct any questions about the HASS Requirement to:

Office of the HASS Requirement
Room 5-133, (617) 253-2313
hassreq@mit.edu