

Undergraduate Housing Notice

Fall 2009

Important Dates for Housing

Wednesday, April 8, 2009

CONFIRMATION FORMS due

CANCELLATION FORMS due

APRIL LOTTERY REQUESTS due

9TH TERM HOUSING REQUESTS with supporting documentation due

Sunday, April 19, 2009

Summer Housing Applications due

Saturday, May 23, 2009

Spring Housing ends for non-graduating students

(If you do not have summer housing, you must move out by 12:00 noon.) No Exceptions.

Saturday, June 6, 2009

Spring Housing ends for all graduating students

12:00 noon. No Exceptions.

Sunday, August 9, 2009

Summer Housing end date

The move out date for all students who will not be living in the undergraduate residence halls for the Fall 2009 Semester. No Exceptions.

For a complete list of dates and links, see <<http://web.mit.edu/housing/undergrad/calendar.html>>

To view this notice on-line, see <http://web.mit.edu/housing/undergrad/fall-notice.html>

HOUSING CONFIRMATION/ CANCELLATION PROCESS

ALL students currently living in Undergraduate Housing (Seniors will be cancelled automatically) are required to fill out a confirmation/cancellation form stating that you:

- Wish to RENEW your on-campus housing for the 2009-2010 academic year, or
- Wish to CANCEL your on-campus housing for the 2009-2010 Academic Year (Graduating seniors and students past their 8 terms of housing eligibility are automatically cancelled and must complete a 9th term housing application if housing is needed)
- If you are requesting 9th term housing, please be aware that your housing has been automatically cancelled, as you are assumed to be graduating. You must complete the 9th term housing application if you are still in need of fall housing.

Do this now by going to the following site: <http://web.mit.edu/housing/undergrad/confirm.html>

Due by April 8, 2009*

*A student for whom no form is received will automatically lose his/ her assignment and will be fined $100.

SENIORS!

Housing eligibility automatically ends after your 8th semester as a registered student. If you will not be graduating, you must request an extension to stay for a 9th term if you would like to continue your housing. Applications will be reviewed and 9th term exceptions will be granted on a case-by-case basis. If you are not granted 9th term housing, you may not live in the undergraduate residence halls in Fall 2009.

Applications can be found at <http://web.mit.edu/housing/undergrad/9th.html>.

All applications must be accompanied by a letter (email is fine) explaining why you require an additional term, as well as any supporting documentation you may have. Please plan to have all supporting documents to the Undergraduate Housing Office (W59-200, residence@mit.edu) by April 8, 2009.

APRIL HOUSING SWITCH LOTTERY

Only students currently living in Undergraduate Housing in the Spring 2009 and are eligible for the lottery.

If you wish to request a move to a different residence hall next term (Fall, 2009), you may fill out a housing change application at:

<http://web.mit.edu/housing/undergrad/application.html>

Applications must be received by April 8, 2009.

The April Lottery switches students based in the order in which they apply, and as space allows.

Please remember that if you file a housing change application, and you receive a new assignment, then you must move

SUMMER HOUSING INFORMATION

Summer Housing in the MIT undergraduate residence halls is available for both students living on-campus during the Spring 2009 semester, and those living in a FSILG or off campus location.

- Students will need to declare their reasons for staying and will be prioritized in the lottery according to the following categories:

- Academically involved MIT students (including UROP) and recently graduated undergraduates staying at MIT for Graduate school
- Students who have jobs in the area related to their work at MIT.
- Department Programs and Special programs.
- Graduated Seniors: Seniors who graduate and who do not meet the criteria noted in the first item above, must move out of their summer housing assignment by June 6th. Exceptions may be made for students who plan to live in the Cambridge area and have an apartment lease beginning July 1st. Please note: seniors in this category must fill out a summer housing application and will be notified of approval of their request to stay through June 30th by the beginning of May. **

To Apply:

<http://web.mit.edu/housing/undergrad/summer.html>

(Applications will be available March 23rd)

Applications for Summer 2009 are due by 11:59 p.m. on Sunday, April 19, 2009.

Summer Housing ends on Sunday, August 9, 2009 for all students. Students not returning to undergraduate residences for the Fall 2009 semester must move out by 12 noon on August 9th. Summer residents, who will be living in the undergraduate dorms for the Fall 2009 semester, must move their permanent fall assignment by Sunday, August 9, 2009.