

poetry@mit presents

Thursday - March 6, 2008
7:00 pm - MIT Room 6-120

for directions go to: <http://whereis.mit.edu/map-jpg>

77 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, MA

Celebrating the Library of America's
ELIZABETH BISHOP:
Poems, Prose and Letters
Edited by Lloyd Schwartz

"Bishop was not just a good poet but a great one. She accomplished a magical illumination of the ordinary, forcing us to examine our surroundings with the freshness of a friendly alien."
- David Lehman

Readers:

Barrett Bidart Colburn Collins Corbett Delaney
Ferry Garfield Graham Harbison
Hildebidle Mazur Peseroff Pinto-Franco
Sacks Schwartz Tapscott Veenstra Warren

Free and open to the public - No tickets or reservations are required

Sponsored by the MIT
Program in Writing and Humanistic Studies and the Literature Section
For information call 617.253.7894