Hi Everyone,

I wanted to personally invite the MIT AILG community to join in celebrating the IRDF's 50th birthday. We have an afternoon and an evening of events scheduled that look to the future of the MIT FSILG community while celebrating its past. Please join us.

For more details, click on the registration link in the email below.

Sincerely,

Lisa Tatterson ’99
Alpha Chi Omega

You are invited to IRDF 50th Anniversary Celebration on Saturday, Apr. 26, 2014.

Fraternities, Sororities, and Independent Livings Groups (FSILGs) are part of the heart of MIT – and the Independent Residence Development Fund (IRDF) is one way MIT and its alumni help keep this community going strong. Through the provision of loans, grants, and funding of community-wide initiatives, the IRDF has been essential to sustaining the Institute’s FSILGs.

IRDF 50th Anniversary Celebration schedule of events:

2:00 p.m. Keynote address on The Nature of Today’s Student and Student Life Challenges

3:15 p.m. Additional sessions on The Future of MIT Education or The FSILG Strategic Plan, Tang Center
4:00 p.m. Tour and Hospitality Room, newly renovated Phi Beta Epsilon house
6:30 p.m. Reception and Gala Dinner, Morss Hall (50)

Afternoon talks: Free
Reception & Dinner: $100 Alumni & Guests; $50 Current MIT Students

To register and for more information about logistics, such as hotel accommodations and parking, visit the registration page.

If you are unable to attend, but would like to give the IRDF a birthday gift, please visit the giving website (fund number IRDF 3036100).

In addition, for the latest news about the IRDF, please visit http://web.mit.edu/irdf/ for more information.

We look forward to seeing you April!
