BSO Raiders of the Lost Ark Live with the Boston Pops, Special 35th Anniversary Celebration, Sat., June 4, 8pm, $29/2nd balcony, Symphony Hall, Boston. The films that gave the world one of its greatest movie heroes, Indiana Jones, is back and better than ever before! Relive the magic on the silver screen with the original great adventure -- Raiders of the Lost Ark -- with John Williams’ epic score performed live to picture by the Boston Pops! Purchase by April 15.

In the Body of the World, Sat., May 21, 7:30pm, American Repertory Theatre. $57/Zone B (reg. $65, including ticketing fee). In this world-premiere adaptation of her critically acclaimed 2013 memoir, Eve Ensler (The Vagina Monologues, Emotional Creature, The Good Body, O.P.C.) celebrates the strength and joy that connect a single body to the planet. As an activist and artist, Ensler has spent her career speaking about the female body. While working in the Congo, where war continues to inflict devastating violence on women, she was diagnosed with stage III/IV uterine cancer. This diagnosis erased the boundaries between Ensler’s work and her own body. In this raw, humorous, and bold performance, Ensler charts the connections between the personal and the public, inviting and challenging all of us to come back into our bodies, and thus the world. Purchase by April 21.

Matilda, Sat., June 26, 6:30pm, Boston Opera House. $82/orchestra. Winner of 50 international awards, including four Tony Awards, Matilda the Musical is the story of an extraordinary girl who, armed with a vivid imagination and a sharp mind, dares to take a stand and change her own destiny. Based on the beloved novel by Roald Dahl, Matilda continues to thrill sold out audiences of all ages on Broadway and in London’s West End. The Wall Street Journal says, “The makers of Matilda have done the impossible—triumphantly! It is smart, sweet, zany and stupendous fun.” “Welcome to the deliriously amusing, heartwarming, headspinning world of Matilda The Musical. You won’t want to leave.” – Bloomberg News. Purchase by May 13.

MIT Music Library Tour and Talk with MIT Music Librarian Peter Munstedt, Fri., May 20, 2pm, 14E-109. Did you know that MIT has a music library? Come tour the Lewis Music Library (14E-109) and find out why this is such a popular place on campus. Renovated in 1996, this library features a striking architecture and an impressive collection of music consisting of 36,000 scores, 15,000 books, and 20,000 recordings. The library collects a wide range of music including classical, world, jazz, popular, folk, electronic, and film music. During the tour, you will have an opportunity to listen to various kinds of music from Handel to HipHop. You will also see hidden treasures from the library’s Special Collections. Space is limited. Sign up by May 6.

RooseveltElvis, Sat., May 28, 2pm, American Repertory Theatre. $65 (reg. $70 including ticketing fees). On a hallucinatory road trip from the Badlands to Graceland, the spirits of Elvis Presley and Theodore Roosevelt battle over the soul of the painfully shy meat processing plant worker, Ann, and over what kind of man or woman Ann should become. Set against the boundless blue skies of the Great Plains and endless American highway, RooseveltElvis is a new work about gender, appetite, and the multitudes we contain. Purchase by April 28.
Starting Your Garden: Gardening for Everyone, Thurs., May 12, 1pm-2pm, MIT, E51-149. $20/pp. With "Getting Started" Container Farming 101, by Jessie Benhazl of Green City Growers, www.greencitygrowers.com. From raised beds to pots and everything in between, learn the ins and outs of successfully growing vegetables and fruits in small spaces and unconventional containers. Everything you need to know about setting up for success-location, design, light, containers. Learn about choosing your edible plants and the planting methods-goals, seasons, crop mapping, seeds and starts, where to get your plants and soil mix. Cost includes light refreshments and gift bags. Purchase by April 28.

Swan Lake (Boston Ballet, Sat., May 7, 1:00pm, Boston Opera House. $95 (reg. $110 + ticketing fees). From the very first note of Tchaikovsky's romantic and ageless score, audiences are transported into a world where enchanted swans rise from a misty lake and a love-struck prince is deceived by a cruel and dangerous beauty. Virtuoso dancing abounds, from the mesmerizing corps of elegant swans, the colorful national dances, and incredible athleticism and grace of Odile's fouettés (whip turns), to the heartbreaking finale when Siegfried's unintentional betrayal and Odette's broken heart dooms the swans to their tragic fate. Hailed as "luminous" by The Wall Street Journal. See it again or for the first time—but do not miss this limited engagement as Swan Lake won't return to the stage for several years. Purchase by April 7.
