

@ the MIT Museum October '06

Making Research and Innovation Accessible to All

October: Energy Month

- 5 Thursday Reception: Singular Beauty; 5:00 p.m.
- 8 Sunday Build a Solar Toy; 2:00 - 4:00 p.m.
- 13 Friday Energy Night @ the Museum for MIT Grad Students
- 18 Wednesday Soap Box Energy Special: The Challenge – Meeting Global Energy Demands Sustainably;
Speakers: Ernest Moniz; Cecil & Ida Green Professor of Physics, and the Co-Director of the Laboratory for Energy and the Environment; Kerry Emanuel, Professor of Meteorology
- 19 Thursday Object Lessons: When Electricity Was The New Energy; 1:00 p.m.
- 25 Wednesday Soap Box Energy Special: The Role of New Technologies in a Sustainable Energy Economy; Speakers: Daniel Nocera, W. M. Keck Professor of Energy and Professor of Chemistry; Angela Belcher, Professor, Biological Engineering and Material Science and Engineering
- 29 Sunday Family Adventures in Science and Technology (F.A.S.T.) Energy Projects with the Howtoons Collective; 2:00 - 4:00 p.m.
- 1 Wednesday Soap Box Energy Special: Growing Pains – Transitioning to a Sustainable Energy Economy; Speakers: John Heywood, Sun Jae Professor of Mechanical Engineering, Director Sloan Automotive Laboratory Stephen Ansolabehere, Professor of Political Science

<http://web.mit.edu/museum>