

*The Molecular & Cellular Neuroscience (MCN)
Program's Breakfast With a Neuroscientist Series*

DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY

MCN Breakfast Series – Tuesdays from 8:45-9:15 in Bldg 68-121. Open to all 1st year Biology and BCS Graduate students. Come enjoy coffee and pastries while having an informal chat with MCN faculty. Ever wondered what life as a neuroscientist is like --now is your chance to go 1-on-1 with some of the leading neuroscientists in the field. Learn about their labs, their dreams, their fears, ... ok, just come for the coffee before 7.52 genetics lectures! Hope to see you there.

September 15	Troy Littleton	Lord of the Flies (& Intro to MCN)
September 22	Matt Wilson	Why You Should Sleep through My Talk
September 29	No Meeting	7.52 Exam – Better you than Me!
October 6	Yingxi Lin	I've got no Inhibitions!
October 13	Martha Constantine Paton	Why is it so Dark in Here?
October 20	Peter Reddien	Why Two Brains are Better than One
October 27	Frank Gertler	My Growth Cone is Bigger than Yours
November 3	Li-Huei Tsai	My Decaying Brain
November 10	Weifeng Xu	My Experience with LSD (oops, LTD)
November 17	No Meeting	7.52 Exam – Root Canals Aren't So Bad
December 1	Hazel Sive	Ok, So I've Got Holes in my Brain
December 8	Michale Fee	How to Sing Like an American Idol

8:45 -9:15 in 68-121