MIT OCF
Paschal Vespers

Join the MIT Orthodox Christian Fellowship on Bright Thursday for Vespers celebrating the resurrection of the Lord.

Everyone is welcome to join us--a reception with refreshments and fellowship will follow.

April 19 at 5:30 PM in the MIT Chapel

Directions:
The easiest way to reach MIT is by public transportation. The #1 bus MIT stop is right across from the chapel. To take the subway, get off at the Kendall Square T stop. Go west towards Massachusetts Avenue (about 5 minutes), cross Mass. Ave. and make a left. You'll see the chapel ahead on the right. If you're driving, MIT is on Massachusetts Avenue right next to the Charles on the Cambridge side. Parking may be a little difficult, but is available along Massachusetts Avenue, Vassar Street, and Memorial Drive. There is a parking lot along Vassar marked West Garage Annex Lot (next to the large garage)--you may park there after 5:30.
