

Michael R. Jung
Associate Counsel

Michael Jung joined MIT as Assistant Counsel for Intellectual Property in April 2001. As Associate Counsel, he advises administrators, faculty, staff and students on legal issues relating to intellectual property, sponsored and collaborative research, procurement of software and services, and technology-related matters.

Before coming to MIT, Mr. Jung practiced in Boston for six years. He was senior legal advisor for MyCounsel.com, an online marketplace delivering legal information and services to consumers and small businesses. Before MyCounsel.com, he served for five years as in-house counsel for Quinlan Publishing in Boston.

Mr. Jung graduated from the State University of New York at Stony Brook and the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law, where he was note and comment editor for the Buffalo Law Review. He is an active member of the National Association of College and University Attorneys, serving on its Committee on Publications.
