Spring 2016 SEMINAR SERIES

DATE LOCATION	SPEAKER	TITLE
2/4 E51-325	Daniel Kuhn Associate Professor; Risk Analytics and Optimization Chair École Polytechnique Fédérale de Lausanne	Ambiguous Joint Chance Constraints under Mean and Dispersion Information
2/11 E51-325	Peter Frazier Associate Professor Cornell University	Incentivizing Exploration
2/18 E51-345	Dimitris Bertsimas Boeing Leaders for Global Operations Professor MIT	Machine Learning and Statistics Via a Modern Optimization Lens
2/25 E51-325	Aaron Sidford Post Doctoral Researcher Microsoft Research	Faster Algorithms for Convex Optimization
3/10 E51-325	Ali Aouad ORC Doctoral Student MIT	Assortment Optimization Under Consider-Then-Choose Choice Models
3/17 E51-325	Stefanie Jegelka X-Consortium Career Development Assistant Professor MIT	Submodular Functions, Probabilistic Models and Determinantal Point Processes
3/31 E51-325	Sebastian Pokutta Assistant Professor Georgia Institute of Technology	High Accuracy Body Part Learning from 3D Depth Images
4/14 E51-325	Sharad Goel Assistant Professor Stanford University	Law, Order & Algorithms
4/21 E51-325	Pascal Van Hentenryck Seth Bonder Collegiate Professor University of Michigan	Complexity, Approximation, and Relaxation of the Power Flow Equations
4/28 E51-325	Nicoleta Serban Coca Cola Associate Professor Georgia Institute of Technology	Health Analytics in Action: Modeling Heterogeneity in Healthcare Utilization Using Massive Medical Claims Data
5/5 E51-325	Dick den Hertog Professor Tilburg University	Robust Counterparts of Ambiguous Stochastic Constraints Under Mean and Dispersion Information

Please Note: All seminars will be held on Thursdays from 4:15pm to 5:15pm unless otherwise indicated. All seminars will be followed by refreshments. If you have any questions contact Andrew Andi Li <aali@mit.edu>; Miles C Lubin <mlubin@mit.edu>, or Anna Michelle Papush <apapush@mit.edu> by email.
