

You're cast as Hamlet!

Au revoir!
Farewell!
Goodbye! Auf
wiedersehen!
...And that's enough of that.

I just get so ANXIOUS every time a play I'm in closes!

A hand-drawn circular diagram with a clock face. The clock face has numbers 1 through 20, with the numbers 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, and 20 arranged clockwise from the top. The numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10 are also present, arranged clockwise from the top. In the center of the circle is a rectangular box. Inside the box, the word "SNORGX" is written in large, bold, outlined letters. Below the word, there is a smaller rectangular box containing the text: "USE WHENEVER LIFE IS SEVERE, DEMANDING, EXTREME, ALL-CONSUMING, OR SPED-UP". The box is surrounded by several jagged, hand-drawn lines that resemble a signal or a waveform. There are three such jagged lines: one at the top (between 1 and 2), one on the right (between 4 and 5), and one at the bottom (between 10 and 11). The bottom jagged line is the most prominent and appears to be a signal waveform. The top and right jagged lines are also signal waveforms. The bottom jagged line is a signal waveform. The bottom jagged line is a signal waveform.

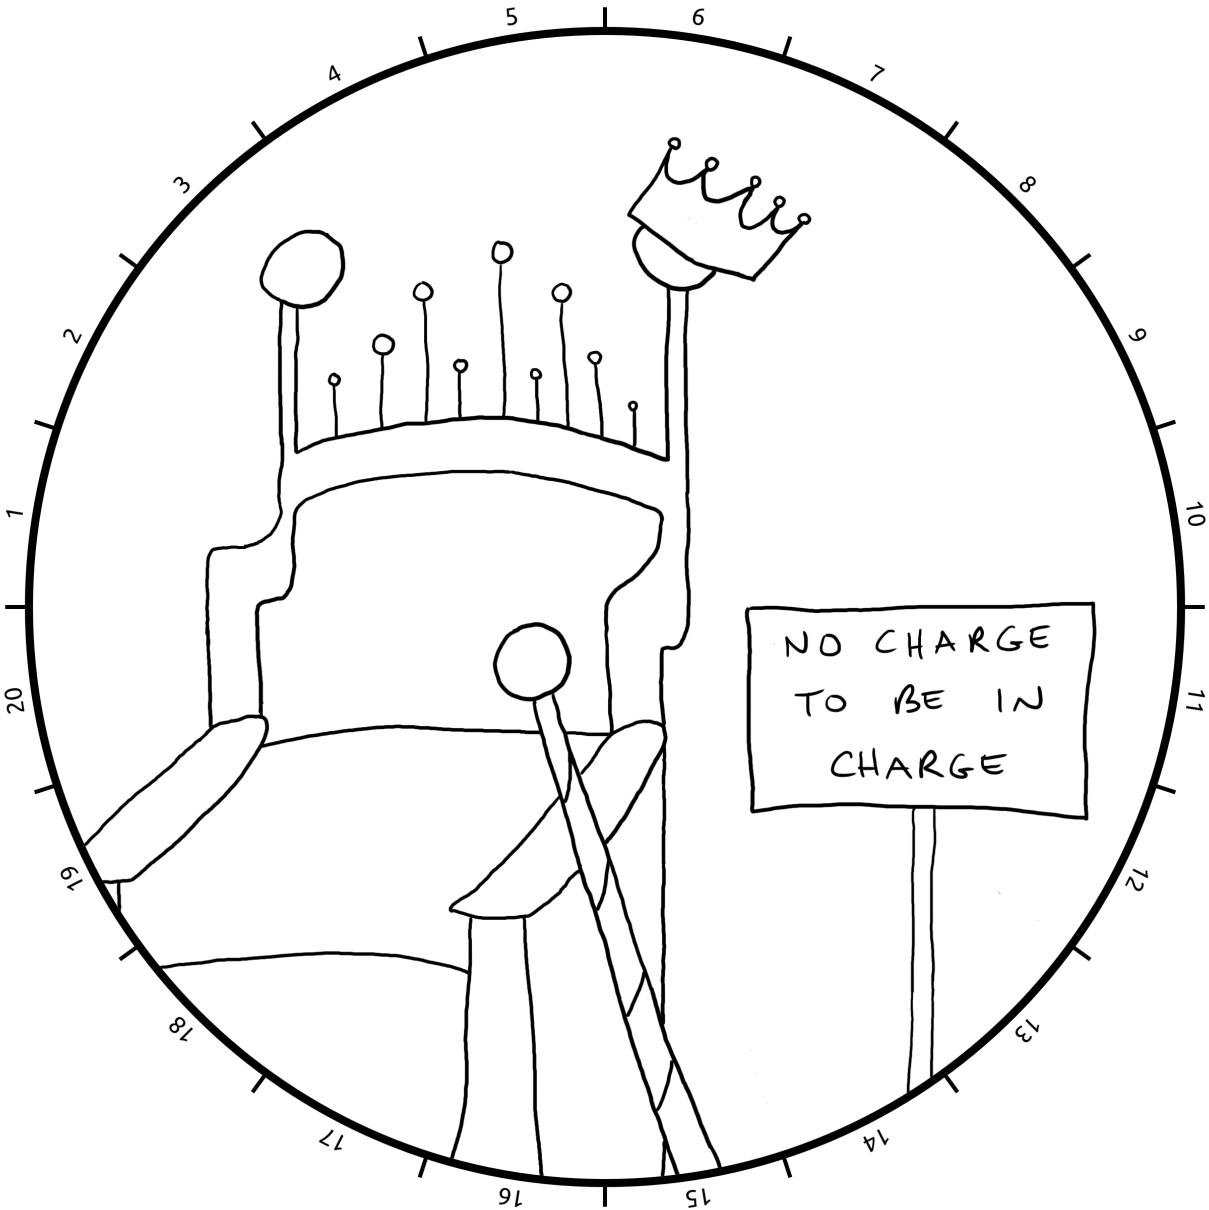

SNORGX

USE WHENEVER LIFE IS SEVERE, DEMANDING, EXTREME,
ALL-CONSUMING, OR SPED-UP

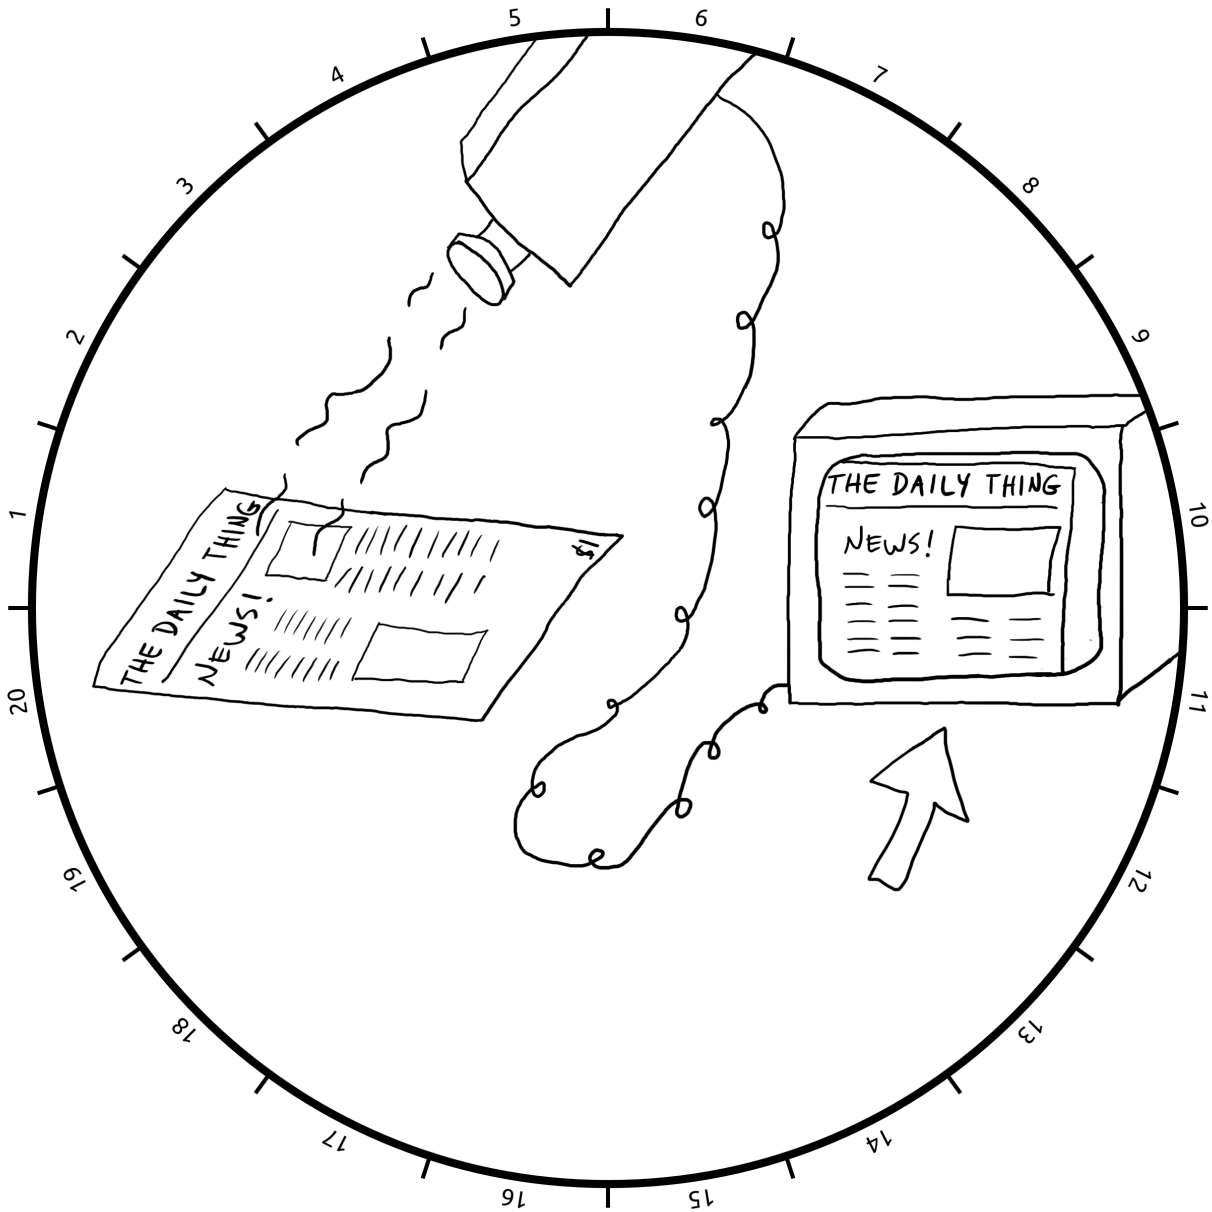

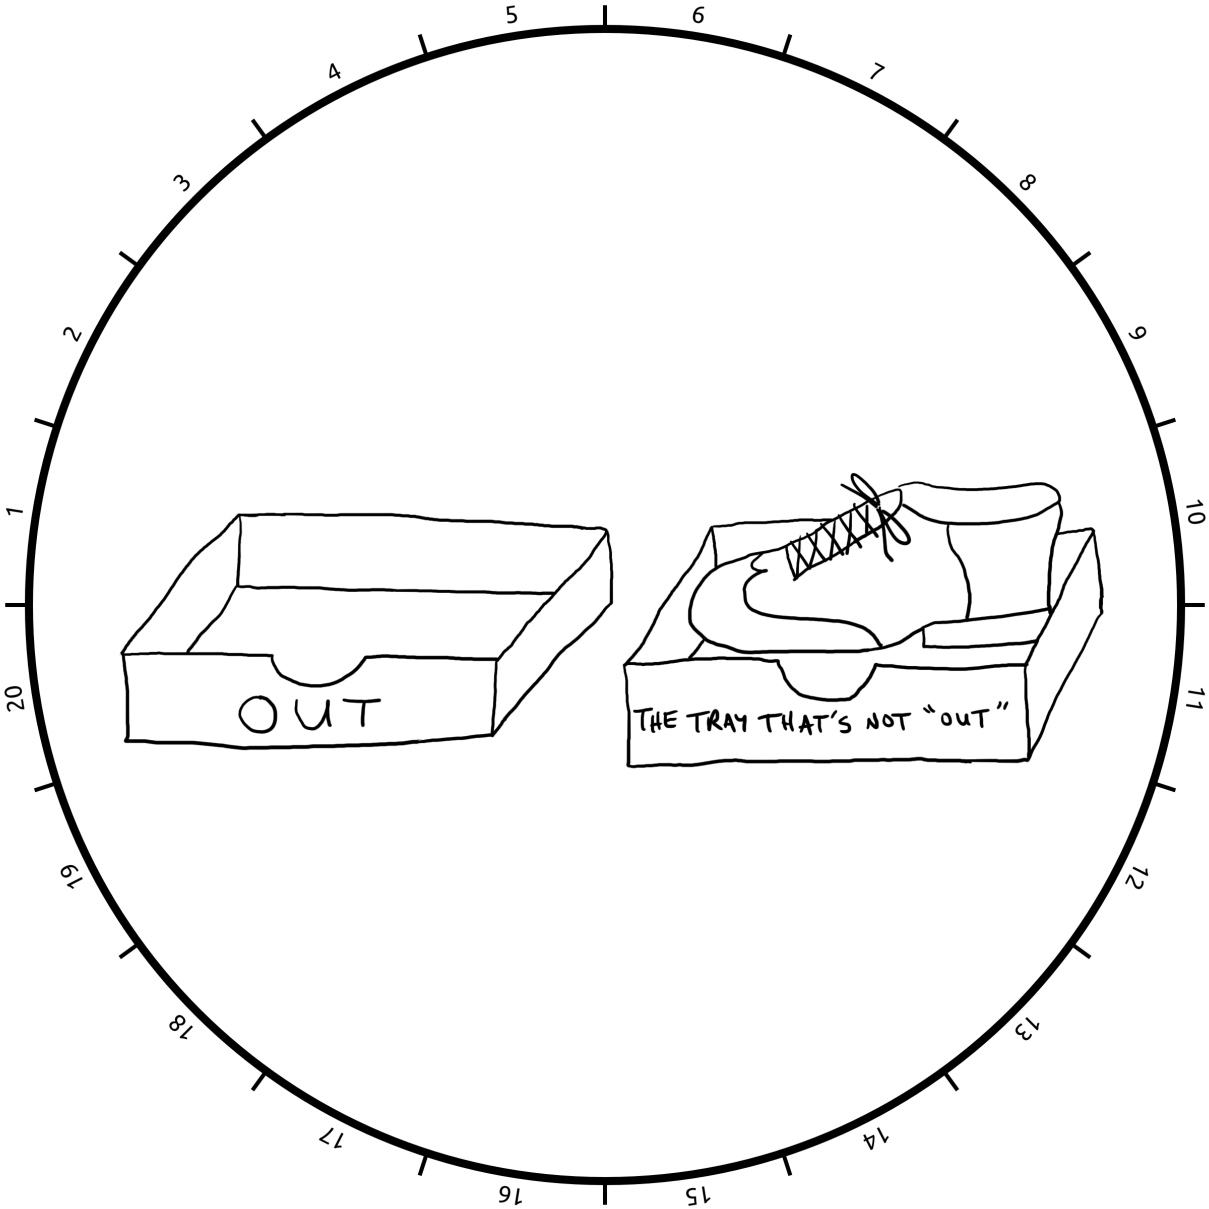

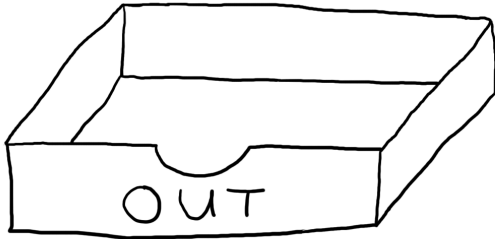

So it's just a bunch of boring shapes.

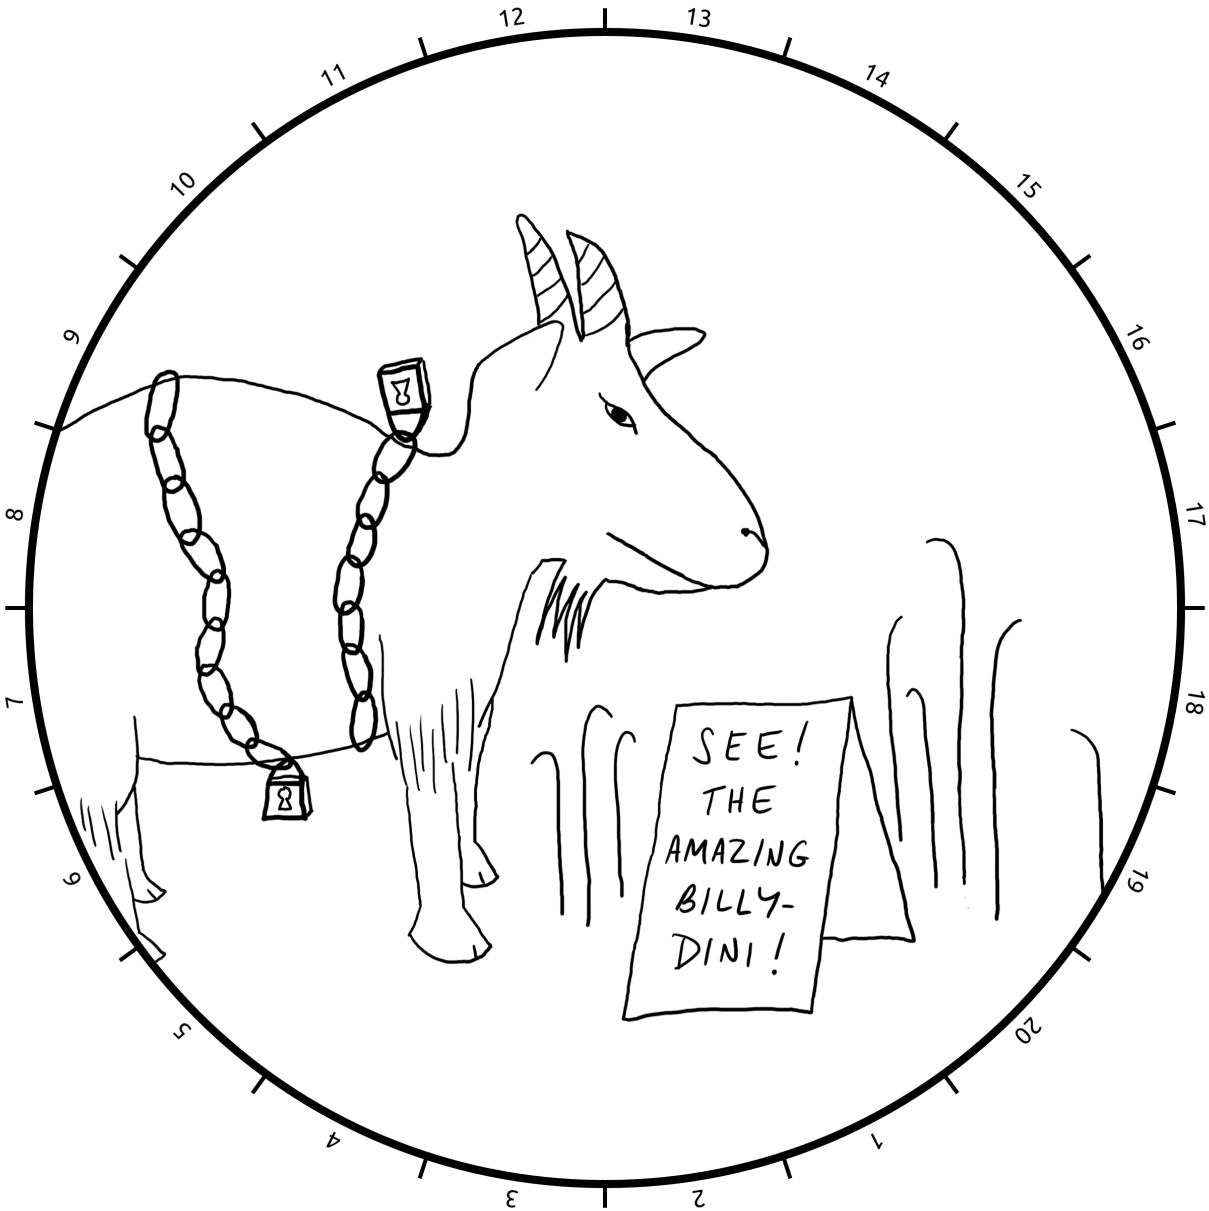

Yup, nothing special.

SEE!
THE AMAZING
BILLY-DINI!

$$3i \times 4i = -12$$

$$7^2 = 49$$

$$\frac{25}{4} = 6\frac{1}{4}$$

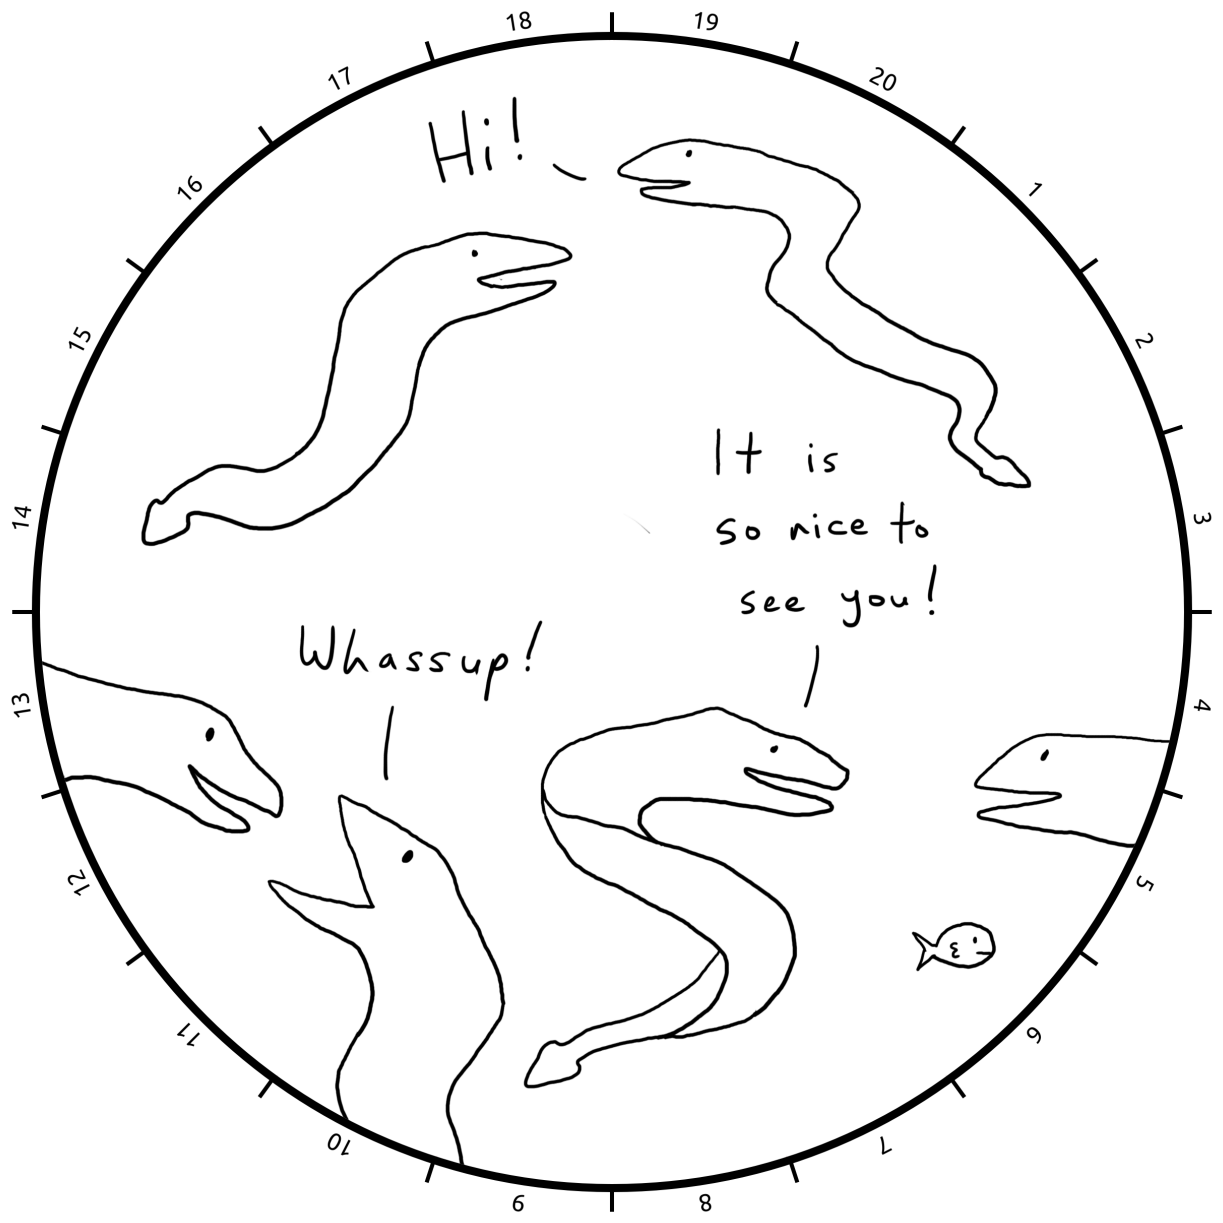

$$8 = 8$$

$$\sin 30^\circ = \cos 60^\circ$$

$$\sqrt[3]{64} = 4$$

$$18 + 4 = 319,$$

1 swear.

Hi!

It is so nice to see you!

Whassup!
