San Francisco Undergraduate Reception

At UBS every day is different – you could be working on any number and scope of projects. As part of a truly global team, you can take advantage of an environment that does not stand still. We offer choices, opportunities and challenges to continually develop your skillset. This is the ideal time to show us what you're made of.

This event has been planned specifically for those of you who will be in the San Francisco area during the holidays and are interested in visiting the office to hear more information about our summer Analyst program. All candidates interested in attending the reception should submit their resumes to David Cotter, david.cotter@ubs.com, by Monday, November 24th. Those selected to participate will receive an invitation shortly thereafter.
