4 EXPECTED EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

Complete this section for the financial aid year from June 1, 2012 through May 31, 2013. If you will receive a degree prior to June 2013, do not include information beyond your degree date.

	SUMMER *	FALL	SPRING	TOTAL
MIT tuition award *	*
MIT stipend amount (gross, before taxes are deducted) *	*
MIT health insurance award
Non-MIT scholarships, grants or other awards not listed above
Total resources

* If you are receiving stipend in the summer, you are probably receiving tuition subsidy for the summer as well.

Your loan eligibility is the cost of education (listed as "budget" on your financial aid award letter) minus the other aid received. Your subsidized loan eligibility (for federally eligible students only) is the cost of education minus the federal EFC (expected family contribution) and other aid received. If your awards are understated here or on your financial aid award statement, we will be required to adjust your financial aid statement and possibly your loans to reflect your actual awards. If your program changes and your tuition is adjusted as a result your budget will be affected which will change your loan eligibility. Decreased budgets may mean decreased loans. Please feel free to contact us at finaid@mit.edu with corrections.

(initial below)

_____ I have read the above statement and understand that MIT is required to limit my loans so that the total of loans and other aid received not exceed the budget. This means if I get subsequent awards, or if I change my program resulting in lower tuition, my loans may be reduced.

- If my loans have already disbursed, my student account will be charged for the returned loan funds which may result in a balance due.
- If I have alternative loan eligibility, I will need to choose a lender and apply. MIT will certify my loan eligibility but the credit decision is the lender's.

5 STATEMENT OF EDUCATIONAL PURPOSE AND AGREEMENT TO NOTIFY STUDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES OF CHANGES IN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

- I declare that the information reported on both sides of this form, to the best of my/our knowledge, is true, correct and complete. I agree to provide, if requested, any other official documentation necessary to verify information herewith reported.
- I certify that I will use any federal and/or other funds I receive for expenses related to my study at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- I agree to report within 10 days of occurrence all changes in financial status, including the subsequent receipt of fellowships, assistantships, or other financial aid, to MIT Student Financial Services (finaid@mit.edu).
