The Thomistic Institute @MIT is sponsoring a two part series this month, “The Distinctiveness of Human Intelligence: Part 2”
- Are Animals Intelligent? Thursday, October 25 at 6:30 in 3-270. Prof. Marie George, St. John’s University.
- Melchizedek Group for Priests Vocations: Fr. Moloney will lead a discussion group about the nature of the priestly vocation and how to discern if God is calling you to the “order of Melchizedek” (Heb. 5:6; 7:17) using the book To Save a Thousand Souls. We meet on Mondays 5-6PM. To attend doesn’t mean that you are thinking about entering the seminary, or even that you’re not dating. It can simply mean that you’re interested in supporting others think about the priesthood. If interested, contact Kyle James (kbj2711@mit.edu). Books are available from Father’s office in W11.

Women’s Discernment Group for Religious Life: Fr. Moloney will lead a reading and discussion group about the nature of the vocation to celibacy in religious life, and how to discern if God is calling us to be “like the angels in heaven” (Matthew 22:30). Meeting times Wednesday at 5 PM. To attend doesn’t mean that you are thinking about entering the convent, or even that you’re not dating. It can simply mean that you’re interested in supporting others who are thinking about religious life. If interested, contact Marah Mullen (mmullen@mit.edu). Copies of the book Discerning Religious Life are available in the office in W11-012

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) and Course in the Fundamentals of the Catholic Faith: Fr. Moloney will be offering a class in the fundamentals of the Catholic faith on Sundays from 2:45-3:45 PM in the Small Dining Room of W11. The class will cover everything from the Trinity to Church history to the Sacraments, prayer, and the moral life. It is meant to be both a high-level introduction to the faith appropriate for interested non-Catholics, and a serious review of the faith for those who are Catholics. It is required for those in becoming Catholic, being Baptized, receiving First Communion, or being Confirmed (who should also reach out to Fr. Moloney to set up a time to talk individually (dmoloney@mit.edu). Classes will start October 14 and run for the rest of the year.

“What do I live for?”: Let’s take time in our busy routine to discuss what really matters in our life. We’ll be guided by a few proposed readings that can help us to reflect on our daily experience and on our values/needs. Italian food will be provided! Tuesdays from 7pm to 8pm @ the Student Center, Private Dining Room #3
For more information contact Elisa: elisap@mit.edu

World Youth Day: Interested in attending World Youth Day with your peers? FOCUS and Fr. Moloney will be attending the youth gathering in Panama this January! The trip will be from 1/14 to 1/29 and the cost of the trip will be fundraised. There are only 6 spots left, apply at apply.focusmissions.org by 10/22! Contact rachel.zuroski@focus.org for more information.
