Current Positions and Affiliations

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge MA:

Associate Professor (with tenure), Department of Political Science, 2018–present.

Director, Political Methodology Lab, 2017–present.

Faculty Affiliate, Statistics and Data Science Center, Institute for Data, Systems, and Society (IDSS), 2015–present.

Previous Positions and Affiliations

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge MA:

Associate Professor (without tenure), Department of Political Science, 2015–2018.

Alfred Henry and Jean Morrison Hayes Career Development Chair, 2015–2018.

Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, 2011–15.

Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan:

Visiting Professor, School of Political Science and Economics, Fall 2019.

Stanford University, Stanford CA:

Fellow, Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences (CASBS), 2016–17.

Gakushuin University, Tokyo, Japan:

Visiting Scholar, Faculty of Law, Summer 2017.

Keio University, Tokyo, Japan:

Visiting Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, Spring 2016.

Tohoku University, Miyagi, Japan:

Visiting Scholar, Faculty of Law, Summer 2013.

Education

Princeton University, Princeton NJ:

Ph.D. in Politics, 2011.

Dissertation Title: Essays on Quantitative Methods for Political Science

Committee: Kosuke Imai, John Londregan, Nolan McCarty

Winner of John T. Williams Dissertation Prize awarded by the Society for Political Methodology

M.A. in Politics, 2008.

University of Tokyo, Tokyo, Japan:

B.A. in Liberal Arts (International Relations), 2006.

University of Oxford, Oxford, UK:

Visiting Undergraduate Student at Lincoln College, 2003–2004.

Fields of Interest

Political Methodology, Causal Inference, Bayesian Statistical Modeling, Elections, Comparative Political Behavior

Honors and Awards

Political Methodology Emerging Scholar Award (honoring “a young researcher, within ten years of their degree, who is making notable contributions to the field of political methodology”), Society for Political Methodology, 2019.

Susan and Paul M. Sniderman Best Experimental Paper in Europe Award (“in recognition of a published article in a peer-reviewed journal, which has made a significant contribution to knowledge or made important discoveries using experiments in the field of political science broadly conceived”), 2018.

Warren Miller Prize (“for the best work appearing in Political Analysis the preceding year”), for “Causal Inference in Conjoint Analysis: Understanding Multi-Dimensional Choices via Stated Preference Experiments,” Society for Political Methodology and Oxford University Press, 2015.

Statistical Software Award (“for developing statistical software that makes a significant research contribution”), for “mediation: R Package for Causal Mediation Analysis,” Society for Political Methodology, 2015.

Political Analysis Editors’ Choice Award (“for an article providing an especially significant contribution to political methodology”), for “Causal Inference in Conjoint Analysis: Understanding Multi-Dimensional Choices via Stated Preference Experiments,” Society for Political Methodology and Oxford University Press, 2014.

Political Analysis Outstanding Reviewer Award (inaugural recipient), Society for Political Methodology and Oxford University Press, 2013.

John T. Williams Dissertation Prize (“for the best dissertation proposal in the area of political methodology”), Society for Political Methodology, 2010.

Fellowships and Grants

Political Science Program Grant, National Science Foundation (SES-1528487), “Collaborative Research: A New Design for Identifying Persuasion Effects and Selection in Media Exposure Experiments via Patient Preference Trials,” 2015–2017 (with Adam Berinsky and Matthew A. Baum). $506,949.

Scholarly Innovation and Advancement Award, Dartmouth College, “Identifying Voters’ Multidimensional Preferences in Representative Democracies,” 2015–2017 (with Yusaku Horiuchi and Daniel M. Smith). $38,000.

Medium Grant for Faculty Research, Weatherhead Center for International Affairs, Harvard University, “Identifying Voters’ Multidimensional Preferences in Representative Democracies,” 2015 (with Yusaku Horiuchi and Daniel M. Smith). $25,000.

Funding for Thematic Methodology Meetings, Society for Political Methodology, 2015 (with Devin Caughey, Bret Hanlon, Stephen Jessee, Alex Tahk, and Christopher Warshaw). $14,250.

Time-Sharing Experiments for the Social Sciences, National Science Foundation, “Do Voting Criteria Differ across the Levels of the U.S. Federal System?” 2013.

Charlotte Elizabeth Procter Fellowship (university-wide competitive honorific fellowship awarded to “students displaying the highest scholarly excellence in graduate work during the year”), Princeton University, 2010–2011.

Funding for the Annual Society for Political Methodology Summer Conference, Society for Political Methodology, 2009, 2010.

Stafford Funding for Conference Travel, Department of Politics, Princeton University, 2008, 2010, 2011.

Graduate Student Fellowship, Princeton University, 2006–2011.

Scholarship for Japanese Students, Ito Foundation for International Education Exchange, 2006–2008 (declined).

University Fellowship for Study at the University of Oxford, University of Tokyo, 2003–2004.

Refereed Journal Publications

“Publication Biases in Replication Studies,” Political Analysis, forthcoming (with Adam J. Berinsky and James N. Druckman).

“Beyond the Breaking Point? Survey Satisficing in Conjoint Experiments,” Political Science Research and Methods, forthcoming (with Kirk Bansak, Jens Hainmueller and Daniel J. Hopkins).

“Identifying Voter Preferences for Politicians’ Personal Attributes: A Conjoint Experiment in Japan” (2020) Political Science Research and Methods, 8(1), 75–91 (with Yusaku Horiuchi and Daniel M. Smith).

“Persuading the Enemy: Estimating the Persuasive Effects of Partisan Media with the Preference-Incorporating Choice and Assignment Design” (2019), American Political Science Review, 113(4), 902–916 (with Justin de Benedictis-Kessner, Matthew A. Baum and Adam J. Berinsky).

“Design, Identification, and Sensitivity Analysis for Patient Preference Trials” (2019), Journal of the American Statistical Association, 114(528), 1532–1546 (with Dean Knox, Matthew A. Baum and Adam J. Berinsky).

“Party Manifestos and Voters’ Multidimensional Policy Preferences: Identification via a Conjoint Experiment” (2018), Political Analysis, 26(2), 190–209 (with Yusaku Horiuchi and Daniel M. Smith).

“The Number of Choice Tasks and Survey Satisficing in Conjoint Experiments” (2018), Political Analysis, 26(1), 112–119 (with Kirk Bansak, Jens Hainmueller and Daniel J. Hopkins).

“Validating Vignette and Conjoint Survey Experiments against Real-World Behavior” (2015), Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences of the United States of America, 112(8), pp.2395–2400 (with Jens Hainmueller and Dominik Hangartner). Winner of the Susan and Paul M. Sniderman Best Experimental Paper in Europe Award.

“Identifying Mechanisms behind Policy Interventions via Causal Mediation Analysis” (2015), Journal of Policy Analysis and Management, 34(4), 937–963 (with Luke Keele and Dustin Tingley).

“Causal Inference in Conjoint Analysis: Understanding Multi-Dimensional Choices via Stated Preference Experiments” (2014), Political Analysis, 22(1), pp.1–30 (with Jens Hainmueller and Daniel J. Hopkins). Lead article. Winner of the Warren Miller Prize and Editors’ Choice Award.

“mediation: R Package for Causal Mediation Analysis” (2014), Journal of Statistical Software, 59(5), pp.1–38 (with Dustin Tingley, Kentaro Hirose, Luke Keele and Kosuke Imai).

“Identification and Sensitivity Analysis for Multiple Causal Mechanisms: Revisiting Evidence from Framing Experiments” (2013), Political Analysis, 21(2), pp.141–171 (with Kosuke Imai). Lead article.

“Experimental Designs for Identifying Causal Mechanisms” (2013), Journal of the Royal Statistical Society Series A, 176(1), pp.5–51 (with Kosuke Imai and Dustin Tingley). Lead article with discussions. Read before the Royal Statistical Society in 2012.

“Understanding the Past: Statistical Analysis of Causal Attribution” (2012), American Journal of Political Science, 56(1), pp.237–256.

“Unpacking the Black Box of Causality: Learning about Causal Mechanisms from Experimental and Observational Studies” (2011), American Political Science Review, 105(4), pp.765–789 (with Kosuke Imai, Luke Keele and Dustin Tingley).

“Causal Inference with Differential Measurement Error: Nonparametric Identification and Sensitivity Analysis” (2010), American Journal of Political Science, 54(2), pp.543–560 (with Kosuke Imai).

“Identification, Inference, and Sensitivity Analysis for Causal Mediation Effects” (2010), Statistical Science, 25(1), pp.51–71 (with Kosuke Imai and Luke Keele).

Selected Working Papers

“Using Conjoint Experiments to Analyze Elections: The Essential Role of the Average Marginal Component Effect (AMCE)” (with Kirk Bansak, Jens Hainmueller and Dan Hopkins).

“Tracing Causal Paths from Experimental and Observational Data” (with Xiang Zhou).

“Does Conjoint Analysis Mitigate Social Desirability Bias?” (with Yusaku Horiuchi and Zachary Markovich).

Invited Contributions

“Comment on Pearl: Practical Implications of Theoretical Results for Causal Mediation Analysis” (2014), Psychological Methods, 19(4), pp.482–487 (with Kosuke Imai, Luke Keele and Dustin Tingley).

“Reply to Discussions of ‘Experimental Designs for Identifying Causal Mechanisms’ ” (2013), Journal of the Royal Statistical Society Series A, 176(1), pp.46–49 (with Kosuke Imai and Dustin Tingley).

“Causal Mediation Analysis Using R” (2010) in Advances in Social Science Research Using R by H.D. Vinod (ed.), New York: Springer, pp.129–154 (with Kosuke Imai, Luke Keele and Dustin Tingley).

Statistical Software

“paths: An Imputation Approach to Estimating Path-Specific Causal Effects” (2020) (with Minh Trinh and Xiang Zhou).

“ppt: Bounds and Sensitivity Analysis for Patient Preference Trials” (2019) (with Dean Knox).

“cjoint: AMCE Estimator for Conjoint Experiments” (2014) (with Anton Strezhnev, Jens Hainmueller and Dan Hopkins).

“Conjoint Survey Design Tool” (2013) (with Anton Strezhnev, Jens Hainmueller and Dan Hopkins).

“mediation: R Package for Causal Mediation Analysis” (2009) (with Dustin Tingley, Luke Keele and Kosuke Imai). Winner of the Statistical Software Award.

Selected Conference Presentations

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (online virtual meeting, July 2020)
“How Much Should You Trust Your Power Calculation Results? Power Analysis as an Estimation Problem.”
“Using Conjoint Experiments to Analyze Elections: The Essential Role of the Average Marginal Component Effect (AMCE).”

Latin American Political Methodology Meeting (Montevideo, Uruguay, November 2019)
“Item Response Theory for Conjoint Survey Experiments.”

American Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Washington DC, August 2019)
“Causal Mediation and Effect Modification: A Unified Framework.”
“Does Conjoint Analysis Mitigate Social Desirability Bias?”
“Priming Bias versus Post-treatment Bias in Experimental Designs.”

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (Cambridge, MA, July 2019)
“Tracing Causal Paths from Experimental and Observational Data.”

Society for Research on Educational Effectiveness Spring Conference (Washington DC, March 2019)
“Causal Mechanisms and Effect Modification.”

Asian Political Methodology Meeting (Kyoto, Japan, January 2019)
“Does Conjoint Analysis Mitigate Social Desirability Bias?”

American Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Boston, MA, September 2018)
“Item Response Theory for Conjoint Survey Experiments.”

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (Provo, UT, July 2018)
“Item Response Theory for Conjoint Survey Experiments.”

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2018)
“Why Replications Do Not Fix the Reproducibility Crisis: A Model and Evidence from a Large-Scale Vignette Experiment.”

Asian Political Methodology Meeting (Seoul, South Korea, January 2018)
“Why Replications Do Not Fix the Reproducibility Crisis: A Model and Evidence from a Large-Scale Vignette Experiment.”

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (Madison, WI, July 2017)
“Why Replications Do Not Fix the File Drawer Problem: A Model and Evidence from a Large-Scale Vignette Experiment.”
“Beyond the Breaking Point? Survey Satisficing in Conjoint Experiments.”

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2017)
“Beyond the Breaking Point? Survey Satisficing in Conjoint Experiments.”

Joint Statistical Meeting (Chicago, IL, August 2016)
“Design, Identification, and Inference in Patient Preference Trials.” Paper for a Topic Contributed Session.

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2016)
“Decomposing Voter Preferences Over Politicians’ Personal Attributes Across Electoral Systems: Evidence from a Conjoint Survey Experiment in Japan.”
“Disentangling Selective Exposure and Media Persuasion.”

American Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (San Francisco, CA, September 2015)
“Decomposing Voter Preferences for Personal Attributes: A Conjoint Analysis.”
“Improving Survey Designs in Conjoint Analysis.”

World Statistics Congress (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, July 2015)
“Identification and Estimation of Causal Mediation Effects with Treatment Noncompliance.” Paper for a Special Topic Session.

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (Rochester, NY, July 2015)
“A Doubly Randomized Design for Conjoint Survey Experiments.”

Atlantic Causal Inference Conference (Philadelphia, PA, May 2015)
“Design, Identification, and Inference in Patient Preference Trials.” Poster Presentation.

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2015)
“Identifying Multidimensional Policy Preferences of Voters in Representative Democracies: A Conjoint Field Experiment in Japan.”

Asian Political Methodology Meeting (Taipei, Taiwan, January 2015)
“Design, Identification, and Inference in Patient Preference Trials.”

Joint Statistical Meeting (Boston, MA, August 2014)
“Identification and Estimation of Causal Mediation Effects with Treatment Noncompliance.” Paper for an Invited Papers Session.

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (Athens, GA, July 2014)
“Do Survey Experiments Capture Real-World Behavior? Evaluating the External Validity of Conjoint and Vignette Analysis.”
“Design, Identification, and Inference in Patient Preference Trials.”

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2014)
“Identification and Estimation of Causal Mediation Effects with Treatment Noncompliance.”

Asian Political Methodology Meeting (Tokyo, Japan, January 2014)
“Identification and Estimation of Causal Mediation Effects with Treatment Noncompliance.”

Atlantic Causal Inference Conference (Cambridge, MA, May 2013)
“Identification and Estimation of Causal Mediation Effects with Treatment Noncompliance.” By invitation.

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2013)
“Causal Inference in Conjoint Analysis: Understanding Multi-Dimensional Choices via Stated Preference Experiments.”

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (Chapel Hill, NC, July 2012)
“Causal Inference in Conjoint Analysis: Understanding Multi-Dimensional Choices via Stated Preference Experiments.”

Japanese Association of Electoral Studies, Annual Meeting (Tsukuba, Japan, May 2012)
“Recent Developments in the Statistical Analysis of Multiparty Elections.” By invitation.

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2012)
“Identification and Sensitivity Analysis for Multiple Causal Mechanisms: Revisiting Evidence from Framing Experiments.”

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (Princeton, NJ, July 2011)
“Hierarchical Modeling of Income-Based Voting in Multiparty Elections.” Poster Presentation.

Atlantic Causal Inference Conference (Ann Arbor, MI, May 2011)
“Sensitivity Analysis for Causal Mediation Effects under Alternative Exogeneity Assumptions.” Poster Presentation.

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2011)
“A Multinomial Response Model for Varying Choice Sets: Application to Partially Contested Multiparty Elections.”

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (Iowa City, IA, July 2010)
“A Discrete Choice Model for Partially Contested Multiparty Elections.” Poster Presentation.

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2010)
“Statistical Analysis of Causal Attribution.”
“Voting, Income Inequality, and Polarization.”

American Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Toronto, ON, September 2009)
“A Counterfactual Analysis of Necessary and Sufficient Causation.”
“Statistical Analysis of Causal Mechanisms in Randomized Experiments.”

Joint Statistical Meeting (Washington D.C., August 2009)
“Identification, Inference, and Sensitivity Analysis for Causal Mediation Effects,” Poster Presentation.

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (New Haven, CT, July 2009)
“Statistical Analysis of Causal Mechanisms.”
“A Counterfactual Analysis of Necessary Causation,” Poster Presentation.

Atlantic Causal Modeling Conference (Philadelphia, PA, May 2009)
“Identification, Inference, and Sensitivity Analysis for Causal Mediation Effects.” By invitation.

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2009)
“Identification, Inference, and Sensitivity Analysis for Causal Mediation Effects.”
“Voting, Income Inequality, and Polarization.”

Society for Political Methodology, Annual Summer Meeting (Ann Arbor, MI, July 2008)
“Causal Inference with Measurement Error: Nonparametric Identification and Sensitivity Analysis of a Field Experiment on Democratic Deliberations.”

Midwest Political Science Association, Annual Meeting (Chicago, IL, April 2008)
“Causal Inference with Mismeasured Treatment: Application to a Field Experiment on Democratic Deliberations.”

Teaching Experience

MIT:

Political Science Laboratory (Undergraduate), Springs 2016 and 2018

Quantitative Research Methods I (Graduate), Falls 2011 (co-taught with Jens Hainmueller), 2012, 2014 (co-taught with In Song Kim), 2018, and 2020

Quantitative Research Methods II (Graduate), Springs 2015, 2016 and 2018

Quantitative Research Methods III (Graduate), Falls 2011–15, 2017–18, and 2020

Quantitative Research Methods IV (Graduate), Spring 2013 (co-taught with Danny Hidalgo)

Princeton:

Quantitative Analysis and Politics (Undergraduate), Fall 2008 (TA)

Quantitative Analysis II (Graduate), Spring 2009 (TA)

Quantitative Analysis III (Graduate), Falls 2008 and 2009 (TA)

Statistical Software Camp (Graduate), Spring 2009 and Summer 2009

Waseda:

Causal Inference (Graduate), Fall 2019

Keio:

Introduction to Causal Inference (Graduate), Spring 2016

Invited Short Courses

Short Course on Causal Inference, Institute for Political Methodology, Academia Sinica, Taiwan, July 2014

Short Course on Causal Inference, Winter Institute in Social Science Research Methodology, College of Liberal Arts, Texas A&M University, January 2014

Students Advised

Chloe Wittenberg (Ph.D. in progress, MIT; member of dissertation committee)

Zachary Markovich (Ph.D. in progress, MIT; co-chair of dissertation committee)

Paige Bollen (Ph.D. in progress, MIT; member of dissertation committee)

Shiyao Liu (Ph.D. in progress, MIT; chair of dissertation committee)

Minh Trinh (Ph.D. in progress, MIT; member of dissertation committee)

Desiree Desierto (Ph.D. 2019, University of Wisconsin; member of dissertation committee): Postdoctoral Researcher, University of Rochester.

Wei Huang Wong (Ph.D. 2018, MIT; member of dissertation committee): Data Scientist, NORC at the University of Chicago.

Dean Knox (Ph.D. 2017, MIT; chair of dissertation committee): Assistant Professor, Princeton University.

Yiqing Xu (Ph.D. 2016, MIT; chair of dissertation committee): Assistant Professor, UCSD.

Chad Hazlett (Ph.D. 2014, MIT; member of dissertation committee): Assistant Professor, UCLA.

University and Departmental Service

Faculty Coordinator for the Political Methodology Seminar Series (MIT Political Science, 2013–present)

Faculty Coordinator for the Political Economy Breakfast Series (MIT Political Science/Economics, 2013)

Faculty Co-sponsor for the Applied Statistics Workshop (Harvard IQSS, 2012–16)

Point Person for the Statistics Curriculum Committee (MIT IDSS, 2014–16)

Member, Statistics and Data Science Center Program Committee (MIT IDSS, 2018–present)

Member, Education Advisory Committee (MIT SHASS, 2018–19)

Models and Methods Subfield Coordinator (MIT Political Science, 2018–present)

Member, American Politics Search Committee (MIT Political Science, 2011–12, 2014–16)

Member, Models and Methods Search Committee (MIT Political Science, 2013–14)

Chair, Graduate Admissions Committee (MIT Political Science, 2018–19)

Member, Graduate Admissions Committee (MIT Political Science, 2012–13, 2017–18, 2020–21)

Member, Graduate Program Committee (MIT Political Science, 2015–16)
