

Greater Boston Invitational Sing

GBIS

1999 Video

A professional multi-camera video of the entire GBIS 1999 concert is available. The sound is remastered from a digital audio recording of the concert.

There are two versions available:

- The standard tape includes various camera angles and close-up shots, as you'd expect. The standard tape will be available in January 2000 at the latest.
- The choreographer's tape shows the entire stage at all times, and the camera never moves. Although the singers look small on the screen, it may be useful for performers to evaluate their placement and skits in relation to the stage as a whole. Also, this tape will be available sooner, in November 1999.

You may order either version alone for $10; order both for $16.50.

Free shipping within (or to be picked up at) MIT; add $3 for Priority Mail shipping within the U.S.; add $6 if you are ordering both tapes and want each shipped as soon as it becomes available.

Deadline for ordering and payment is Friday, October 29th. Because of duplication startup costs, late orders are $1 extra.

Payment accepted: Cash, Check or MIT Account Transfer. Make checks payable to The Tech Jazz Singers. Our MIT account number is 2720356.
