 For MIT: 1. _____ Email: _____ Department: _____
 2. _____ Email: _____ Department: _____

In consideration of MIT making confidential information available to the Receiving Party, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. When used in this Agreement, the term “Confidential Information” means confidential and proprietary information disclosed by MIT to the Receiving Party that relates to (i) the Purpose and/or (ii) unpublished research, invention disclosures, or unpublished patent applications. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event is information Confidential Information if it (a) was in the Receiving Party’s possession before receipt from MIT; (b) is or becomes a matter of public knowledge through no fault of the Receiving Party; (c) is received by the Receiving Party, without restriction as to further disclosure, from a third party having an apparent bona fide right to disclose the information; or (d) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of MIT’s Confidential Information. For purposes of this Section, MIT students and fellows are not third parties vis à vis MIT.
2. LIMITATIONS ON USE. The Receiving Party shall use MIT’s Confidential Information solely for the Purpose. Disclosure by MIT of its Confidential Information does not constitute a grant to the Receiving Party of any right or license to MIT’s Confidential Information, except as set forth herein.
3. CARE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. The Receiving Party shall exert reasonable efforts to maintain MIT’s Confidential Information in confidence, except that the Receiving Party may disclose or permit disclosure of any of MIT’s Confidential Information to its directors (or, if applicable, members), officers, employees, consultants, and/or advisors, who need to know such information to fulfill the Purpose and who have been advised of and have agreed to maintain the confidential nature of the Confidential Information.
4. REQUIRED DISCLOSURES. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent a Receiving Party from disclosing Confidential Information pursuant to an order of a court or other governmental authority of competent jurisdiction, as long as the Receiving Party (a) promptly notifies MIT of its intention to disclose, (b) provides reasonable cooperation to MIT in any efforts to contest or limit the scope of such order or subpoena, and (c) furnishes only that portion of the Confidential Information which the Receiving Party is legally required to disclose.
5. NO WARRANTY. All Confidential Information is provided “as is.” MIT does not make any warranties, expressed or implied, regarding its Confidential Information’s accuracy, completeness, suitability or performance.
6. TERM OF AGREEMENT. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and terminate on the earliest of (a) the conclusion of the Purpose, (b) three years from the date of this Agreement, or (c) the date on which a party provides notice of termination of this Agreement to the other. A Receiving Party’s obligations with respect to use and non-disclosure of MIT’s Confidential Information shall survive for a period of five years following receipt of the information.
7. RETURN OR DESTRUCTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. Following termination of this Agreement, the Receiving Party shall, at the direction of MIT, either destroy or return to MIT all documents, materials, and other tangible manifestations of MIT’s Confidential Information and shall destroy any electronic or digital manifestations of MIT's Confidential Information, except that the Receiving Party may retain one copy of the Confidential Information solely for the purpose of monitoring its obligations under this Agreement.

8. NOTICES. Any notices to be given under this Agreement, other than those contemplated by Section 1, shall be in writing and addressed to the parties as shown below. Notices shall be delivered by certified or registered first class mail (air mail if not domestic) or by commercial courier service and shall be deemed to have been given or made as of the date received.

9. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

- 9.1 CREATE Act. For the purposes of the Cooperative Research and Technology Enhancement Act of 2004, the parties agree that this Agreement is not considered a joint research agreement.
- 9.2 No Agency or Future Commitment. The parties do not intend that any agency, partnership, joint venture, or exclusive relationship is created between the parties by this Agreement, and each party is free to pursue relationships and opportunities with others similar to those contemplated by this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as obligating the parties to enter into any subsequent agreement or relationship.
- 9.3 Entire Agreement/Amendment. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by an authorized representative of each party.
- 9.4 Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned by either party without the other party's prior written consent.
- 9.5 Severability. The provisions of this Agreement are severable. In the event any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof and the provision shall be reformed to be enforceable and reflect as closely as possible the intent of the original provision.
- 9.6 Waiver. Any waiver of compliance with the terms of this Agreement must be in writing, and any waiver in one instance shall not be deemed a waiver in any future instance.
- 9.7 Governing Law. The interpretation and validity of this Agreement and the rights of the parties shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
- 9.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original, but all of which together constitute one and the same instrument.
