A System in Crisis: Transportation Challenges Facing the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

James A. Aloisi, Jr.
Secretary of Transportation, Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Friday, April 3, 2009
Complimentary lunch at 12:00 pm
Lecture at 12:30 pm

Mezzanine Lounge, W20-307
Stratton Student Center

ctl.mit.edu/lunchtimelectures
A System in Crisis: Transportation Challenges Facing the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Speaker: James A. Aloisi, Jr.
Secretary of Transportation, Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Where & When
Friday, April 3, 2009
Lunch served at 12:00 pm
Lecture begins at 12:30 pm
Mezzanine Lounge, W20-307
Stratton Student Center
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Biography
As Secretary of Transportation, James A. Aloisi, Jr. directs the Executive Office of Transportation and Public Works (EOTPW). The Secretary has direct oversight of the Massachusetts Highway Department, the Registry of Motor Vehicles, and serves as the Chair of the MBTA Board of Directors, the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, and the Massachusetts Aeronautics Commission. As Secretary, he also serves on the board of the Massachusetts Port Authority.

ctl.mit.edu/lunchtimelectures