

Normally, when the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon a believer, he will know as never before that he is not his own. He now belongs exclusively to the One who has clothed him and the One with whom he is clothed. So, the Lordship of the Lord Jesus Christ is established permanently, and radical obedience to the Holy Spirit in all things, at all times and at any cost becomes the only way ahead. Thus the Spirit-filled life is maintained, deepened and heightened, and the power to impart the Lord Jesus in full measure to those who are dead in trespasses and sins available in an ever-increasing measure. And so the lost are won and kept. The Spirit-filled person will need no encouragement to go and win the lost. The winning of the lost will be his normal life. Witnessing to those without Christ will flow from him even as a river flows. And there will be fruit! fruit!! fruit!!! And there will be abundance of fruit! Abundance of fruit and abundance of fruit. And the fruit will abide because it is genuine. Yes, the fruit will abide because it is gold, silver, precious stones and not wood, hay or straw. And the hatred of sin will be seen in the converts and the continuing hatred of sin will be seen. The love of the Lord will be seen in the converts and an increasing love of the Lord will be seen in them. They will grow rapidly and themselves seek and receive the power from above and walk daily in obedience to the Holy Spirit, and so a work of Heavenly origin will flow forth and fill the world to the joy of Heaven and the blessing of the sons and daughters of men worldwide.
