Exam 1 Information

Exam 1 will take place on Thursday September 19 from 7:30-9:30 pm.

Exam 1 Room Assignments:

26-100 –Sections L01 and L03

26-152 –Section L02

50-340 –Sections L04, L05, L06, and L07

Conflict Exam 1

Friday September 20  8-10 am

a) Room 26-328 for students with last name beginning with a letter between A-J

b) Room 26-322 for students with last name beginning with a letter between K-Z

Friday September 20 10-12 noon  Room 26-168

If you have a conflict due to an officially scheduled MIT class activity then you need to email Dr. Peter Dourmashkin (padour@mit.edu) and get his ok if you plan to take the conflict exam. Please include your reason and which time you would like to take the conflict Exam 1. If you have any additional conflict issues (religious holidays, etc., please contact Peter Dourmashkin).

Concept Questions and Analytic Problems Exam 1 Topics:

Kinematics in One and Two Dimensions including Uniform Circular Motion and Time Dependent Acceleration

Newton’s Laws of Motion

Applications of Newton’s Second Law of Motion for Linear Motion