Welcome to the MIT Museum!

Tips for Visiting:

• The Museum is best suited for middle school ages and up, but younger children accompanied by an adult are welcome.

• Allow for 1–2 hours to visit the Museum.

• Parking is metered on the street or available in nearby lots.

• In the Galleries: Not all of our exhibitions are interactive. Please be sure to read the signs in the galleries.

• Food: the Museum does not have a restaurant on site, but there are many nearby. Food and drink are not allowed in the Museum.

• The Neighborhood: The MIT Museum is located in the newly designated Central Square Cultural District.

• Photography
   You are welcome to take pictures of the exhibitions for personal use only. Flash photography and video are not permitted.

   Photography is not permitted in the Holography Gallery.
