The Constitution of Christians on Campus

Article I: Purpose
Christians on Campus is an ASA recognized student group of MIT. We love the Lord Jesus and endeavor to give Him the "first place in all things" (Col. 1:18). We meet together on campus, in homes, and in other settings to encourage one another, receive nourishment from the Bible and grow in Christ. We desire and seek that all our fellow students would come to know Christ as God and Savior. Christians on Campus also endeavors to help all Christians to build the Church, the Body of Christ, according to the Lord's desire as revealed in the Holy Word. We hold the faith which is common to all believers regarding our salvation. We receive all believers in Christ and encourage all others to believe into Christ.

Article II: Membership
1. Any member of the MIT community is eligible to become a member of this organization. One is considered a member of this organization in any given academic term if he/she has attended at least one club activity and one meeting in the preceding or current term.
2. The organization's membership will at all times consist of at least 5 MIT students and be more than half MIT students.
3. This organization will not discriminate based on any characteristic listed in MIT's Nondiscrimination Statement.
4. If this organization charges any monetary dues, there will be exceptions made for students that cannot afford these dues.

Article III: Officers
1. This organization will have two officers:
   a. President
      i. The president shall be the official representative of the group to any other organization and to MIT.
      ii. The president will preside over all meetings.
      iii. The president is responsible for determining when meetings are and publicizing this to the group.
   a. Treasurer
      i. The treasurer shall be responsible for the finances of the group.
      ii. The treasurer is required to sign all checks/vouchers of the group.
2. All officers of this organization must be distinct persons and MIT students.
3. Elections:
   a. Elections of officers shall occur on the second to last student leadership meeting (held on the second to last week of school before finals).
   b. Any member of this organization is eligible to run for office.
c. Quorum for elections is two thirds of the group.
d. Any member is elected if he or she wins a majority of the voting members.
e. If more than two people are running and no one wins a majority, then the person with the fewest votes is dropped from the ballot and votes are recast.
f. The term of office runs from first Thursday of the month of May from one year to the next.

4. Removal: Officers may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the members.

Article IV: Meetings
