Appendix B: Residence Selection Process

Student chooses to attend MIT

Student offered information about MIT residence system

Student fills out housing preference, enters summer lottery.

Student receives temporary room assignment.

Arrival on campus

Orientation and dorm rush occur

Student fills out housing preferences again, enters no-risk orientation lottery.

Student retains original dorm assignment ("squats" dorm)

Student receives new dorm assignment

Internal house orientation occurs (freshmen mixers, hall rush, etc)

Student retains original room assignment ("squats" room)

Student receives new room assignment