Chiapas Media Project
A screening of 3 films by indigenous filmmakers

Thursday Nov. 9th 7:00pm in 54-100

• “Water and Autonomy” 14min water challenges and community solutions in Chiapas

• “Eyes on What's Inside” 35min an exploration of the economic, social, and political factors that lead to the rapes of two indigenous women

• “The Word of Water” 15min
  the story of an indigenous-language community radio project

A discussion with Aasia Mohommad of the Chiapas Media Project will follow the films.

Sponsors: Tecschange, Western Hemisphere Project, Technology and Culture forum and Women’s Studies