ASSIGNMENT ONE

Papers should be around ten pages long (i.e. 3,000 – 4,000 words long)
Due date: Monday October 25

1. How should we understand ‘could have done otherwise’? Does the compatibilist need to understand it in a way that makes it come out true?

2. Are there grounds for denying that freedom is closed under entailment? does this help accommodate freedom into a deterministic picture?

3. Does Lewis give a convincing account of how we could have done otherwise?

4. Should we believe in possible worlds?

5. Can a libertarian account be made coherent? Can it give us what we want? Is it compatible with physics as we think it to be?
