Project Adopt:
Adopt an African AIDS Orphanage

By 2010, there will be 41,994,000 orphans living in Africa due to the deaths of their parents from AIDS, other diseases, starvation, and war.

Did you know....
It costs 2.1 billion U.S. taxpayer dollars for one intercontinental stealth bomber.

It costs $50 to provide sheets, blankets, clothes, shoes, school uniform, books, and supplies for one child for one year.

7:00 Reception: African drumming, dancing, and poetry
7:30 Panel presentation: Children of the Newest African Holocaust

Panelists:
Dr. Seyoum Ayehunie, Ethiopia: Dr. Ayehunie has extensive experience in the field of HIV. He is a pioneer scholar in HIV research and was instrumental in setting up the first HIV-testing laboratory in Ethiopia.

Oluremi Johnson, Nigeria: Remi Johnson, cofounder of Community Development Link, Inc. (CDL), is a broadcaster who specialized in women's and children's programs during her 20-year career. CDL is focused on improving the plight of women and children suffering from HIV/AIDS.

ANGELA WAKHWEYA, Uganda: Angela wakhweya, mbbs, msc, is an assistant professor at Boston University School of Public Health and cofounder and chairperson of African baobab, Inc., a Boston-based non-profit organization currently assisting Uganda orphans rural development program operating in tororo and mbale districts in Uganda.

When: Thursday, December 5, 2002 from 7:00 P.M. to 9:00 p.m.
Where: St. Paul AME Church Christian Life Center Auditorium
85 Bishop Allen Drive, Central Square, Cambridge

Tickets: $20.00 / $10.00 for students and low income

Sponsored by: The Boston Pan-African Forum
St. Paul AME Church, Cambridge
The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee

For information call 617-869-3428 or go to our website: www.bpaf.org
Take the MBTA Red line to the Central Square T Station, Cambridge