We, as members of Pink Team, acknowledge the following code:

Honesty and Accountability 🙋‍♀️
We shall be honest about what we can contribute and take ownership of.

Preparation 🎓
We shall come to meetings with a clear understanding of what is going to be discussed and achieved. We shall leave meetings with clear actionables and deadlines for these actionables.

Effective Communication 📜
Take space and make space for yourself and others. We will participate in all group discussions. We will document and communicate our progress on tasks. Slack is not wack — please reply!

Respect and Inclusiveness 💘
We shall make constructive comments and value everyone’s ideas. We promise to be inclusive of everyone. We will not make personal attacks or talk over others. We promise to be level headed in discussions. We will be open and prioritize collective consensus by making sure everyone is on the same page.

Efficiency 💪
We will strive to maintain a balance between members’ strengths, interests, and willingness to learn. We will volunteer for tasks that we know we can put in the effort for, and have the time for. We will not let ourselves get stuck on one task for too long. We will ask for help and make good use of available resources! We will plan ahead and be aware of deadlines to manage our time.

Growth 🌱
We will have the ambition to learn and the excitement to teach. We will be open to exploring new things and topics.

Pink Vibes 🎉
We promise to hype each other TF up! We will support and respect other teams. HAVE FUN!
