

3. Trivia

- The name of the sporadic simple group of order 86775571046077562880.
- Last name of the inventor of the modern safety elevator.
- Symbol used for compression modulus of a wave.
- German wine label made from grapes that are frozen solid when picked.
- Parasitic worm with no alimentary canal.
- Uncle of Polidamas, Knight of the Round Table.
- Cadence based on the progression I-IV-I.
- Company that built the first nuclear submarine.
- In Pinochle, name for the three cards dealt face down on the table.
- The common name of this organic compound:

- Person who names Morganetta as Morgan Le Fais daughter.
- German bidding form of Euchre.
- Name of microwave equipment company on Tremont.
- Type of aquarium filter that uses a gravel vacuum.
- Continent in which wild ginger can be found.
- Distribution with cumulative distribution function  $\frac{1}{2} + \frac{1}{\pi} \arctan(x)$ .
- A device for aquariums that measures the specific gravity of water, often containing a thermometer inside.
- Unit equal to exactly 929.0304 foot-lamberts.
- In USB 2.0, endpoint type that corresponds to an ET value of 01.

- In Napoleon, a standard bid to take all five tricks.
- One' in Quenya.
- In Klüberjass, word that may be called by a player to score 20 if he holds the king and queen of trumps.
- Name of base in which 1111111 represents 7.
- Gas in nuclear fusion fuel which is not Deuterium.
- The study of fish.