

Title: Measuring the electric dipole moment of the electron with molecular ions

Abstract: I will give an overview of the electron electric dipole moment search at JILA. The experiment uses hundreds of trapped HfF^+ ions, polarised by a rotating electric field. I will discuss the techniques we have developed for coherent control and suppression of systematic shifts in this unique environment for precision metrology.