‘‘Spock to Enterprise...’’

You’ve seen them on TV...and everybody’s rushing out to buy Hallmark’s ‘‘Shuttlecraft Galileo’’ Christmas ornaments. After all, a Christmas tree isn’t complete without a digitized holiday greeting from Mr. Spock!

Well, STAY TUNED has got these spiffy new ornaments -- and we’re giving them away for free! Everyone who calls in to STAY TUNED -- MIT’s favorite Star Trek talk show -- will be entered into a random drawing to be held at the end of each show.

So tune us in for Star Trek discussion; tune us in for Star Trek comedy; and tune us in for your chance at winning a ‘‘Shuttlecraft Galileo" ornament!

STAY TUNED is broadcast live after each first-run episode of ‘‘Star Trek - The Next Generation,’’ Saturdays at 8:00pm, only on MIT Channel 36!
